A total of 300 books were printed of "Genealogical Chronicles" with a pre-subscription sale of $1\frac{1}{2}$ copies..

Persons who through ordering a book or books above the original $25.00 subscription price may deduct that donation from the new purchase price if one or more additional copies are desired.

The following are a few errors which were discovered after the printing of the book.

1. p. 117 Stanley Schaszberger remarried to Delores V. (Foster) Auman.
2. Clyde M. Fetrow was born August/1882 (not 1872).
p. 132.
3. p. 133 Catherine V. (Fettro) Wagman was born 1/8/1930 (not 1931).
4. p. 135 Gladys Beck married Howard Zeigler.
5. p. 136 Curvin Fetrow had five sons (not six) and one daughter.
6. p. 158 #22 I believe this to be Mary May Fetrow, daughter of Henry & Catherine (Mayer) Fetrow (see Chap. 8). She married George K. Hoffman on that date (not George K. Kauffman).

INTRODUCTION

The earliest history of the FETROW * FETTROW * FETTRO family in America has been greatly obscured by the passage of time. Amidst lost and destroyed records, errors, worn and vandalized tombstones and unmarked and unknown gravesites lies the whole truth to the family's beginnings in this country. The information which was available has been pieced together as best as could be done, considering the many obscurities and contradictions encountered when undertaking a project such as this.

As to the origin of the name one can only speculate. "Prowell's History of York County" states that the name is of German origin, a statement which I believe is based on the journal left by John Philip Fetrow (1776-1868) where he states that his grandfather came from Germany (spelled JARMANEY in the original). The one fact which leans heavily toward a German origin is the fact that all of the early descendants of the family were members of or attended the Lutheran church, a denomination which originated in Germany. But even this is not conclusive if for example Philip Fedrow's father was French and his mother German. The last syllable of the name carries evidence of a possible French origin. This may be especially true IF Philip Fedrow came from the area of Alsace-Lorraine which has for centuries been a battleground between France and Germany as to who owned it. Alsace has a mixture of French and German residents.

Nothing even resembling the name has ever been found among the Germans who were forced out of the Palatinate in the 18th Century, most of which subsequently emigrated to America, forming the early German settlements.

Another possibility would be that Philip entered North America through Canada, coming south out of Canada and emigrating east to Pennsylvania where he finally settled in Newberry township of York County. If this would be the case, it is another strong point to the origin of the name being French as Germans did not begin to settle in Canada until the late 18th century. The ones which eventually settled in Canada came north from the United States after the Revolutionary War.

Correspondence from Illinois, the information of which was taken from an old diary states that there were originally three brothers who came to America of which Philip was one. Somewhere in Illinois there is supposed to be buried one Peter Fetrow b. 1720 - d. 1783. This may well be one of Philip's brothers, existence of the third brother being unknown. The same records also list dates for one Yinger Fetrow b. 1770 - d. 1836 and one John Fetrow who was born in 1798 and died in 1861. It would seem that possibly Yinger and John were descendants of Peter.

Another thing which I find curious is why these three Fetrows are buried in Illinois when it can be seen from Chapters 3 and 13 in this book that the first descendants of the family did not migrate to this area until the mid-19th century.

The known spellings of the name still in use today number only four, namely: FETROW * FETTROW * FETTRO * FITTRO. The name Tedrow also enters in here. This family went west in the 1800s and were descended from Michael Tedrow. The only possibility of a relationship here would be Michael may have been a descendant of Philip's unknown brother.

The original spelling of the name can only be speculated on. Philip Fedrow does not appear in the York County "Taxables of 1767". The "Taxables of 1783 lists: 1 FETROW and 4 FETTRO. The Pennsylvania census of 1790 lists: 5 FEDRO, 1 FEDROW and 1 FETROW. The 1800 state census lists 1 FEDROW and 6 FETTERO. The 1810 census has nine listings for FETTRO. By the 1820 census the spellings of the state census settled on FETROW with a few variations which appear to be misspellings. Many other variations appear over the years on the remaining records, but most can be attributed to English translations from German written records. In the 19th century a large majority used the spelling FETTROW, the later generations of which dropped the second T. The only members of the family which still maintain the two T spelling are the descendants of Daniel & Sarah (Wilt) Fettrow and the descendants of Michael & Elizabeth (James) Fettrow.

The genealogy which follows on these pages tells the history and lineage of the descendants of JOHN PHILIP FEDROW from the time that he settled in York County in the middle of the 18th century.

There are no famous people on the following pages which undertook dangerous exploits or daring ventures, or for that matter left a name which will go down in history and be remembered for ages to come. They are basically just plain ordinary everyday people who lived their lives according to the way they saw fit and departed when their time was up. Many lived their lives as members of the agricultural community, some as fulltime farmers with large acreage, some with small family farms, the balance of which were farm laborers working on established farms. The women of the clan were mostly housewives and mothers.

Lastly, my apologies to those who find errors in spellings of names or erroneous dates. Every effort has been made to make the history as accurate as possible. The early family connections are based on extensive study and comparisons of records and information which were available.

The General Layout of Genealogical Descent

The basic layout of this book should be relatively easy for the reader to follow as it is all laid out in outline form, each indentation representing the next generation. I feel this will make ancestral tracing much easier as opposed to the genealogical numbering system which I feel may be too confusing for the uninitiated reader. Each chapter begins with one of the family forefathers, followed by his descendants. If too many descendants are involved, there will be references leading to a continuation in another chapter. A notation in the left hand corner at the beginning of each chapter indicates from what other chapter of the book that a continuation is being made.

At the end of each personal history if the persons mentioned are deceased and it is known where they are buried a code number, e. g. (C01), (C02), (C03), etc. will be listed. This code number corresponds to a listing in the back of the book, naming the cemetery corresponding to the code.

PROLOGUE

Part I

JOHN PHILIP FEDROW
(1719 * 1791)

JOHN PHILIP FEDROW (as he spelled his name on his last will and testament) was born May 1, 1719, a date which may be in accord with the now obsolete Julian Calendar. If so, Philip's date of birth would actually be May 12, 1719 according to the present day Gregorian Calendar which did not come into wide acceptance until 1752. A journal left by his oldest grandson, John Philip Fetrow states that the elder Philip and his wife came to America from Germany. The date that he came to America is unknown as is the area of Germany from which he came.

Philip married Anna Mary Bose (or possibly Rose) who was born ca.1732. The earliest known record of Philip's existence in America other than the births of his sons is in the form of a land grant which consisted of 105 acres which he received on October 12, 1760. His land was located in Newberry township where Bennett's Run enters the upper Conewago Creek, approximately 76° 47' 50" west longitude * 40° 06' 40" north latitude. This is in the section of Newberry township known as "The Bald Hills".

Anna Mary bore to Philip, five sons, namely: PHILIP JACOB (Fedrow) FETROW b. 1755 (see Chapter 1), MICHAEL (Fedrow) FETROW b. 1757 (see Chapter 2), JOSEPH (Fedrow) FETROW b. 1759, Andreas "ANDREW (Fedrow) FETROW b. 1760 who had a wife named Elisabeth and left no known descendants and Johannes "JOHN " (Fedrow) FETROW b. 1763 (see Chapter 4). "Prowell's History of York County" also names a daughter Catharine who married a Mr. Jacobs. This Catharine is not listed among the heirs in Philip's last will and testament dated April 23, 1787 and probated March 23, 1791. Executors to Philip's will were his son Joseph and one Martin Shetter. Joseph appears to have been Philip's favorite son.

Philip Fedrow departed this life on March 7, 1791. His wife, Mary passed through the portal fourteen years and 10 days later on March 17, 1805. The aforementioned journal states that Philip and Mary are buried at Quickel's old Church cemetery, but no record exists there. The story here is that there are around three thousand persons buried at Quickel's old cemetery and only about five hundred markers remaining to this day. "Prowell's History" says that they are buried in what was then known as York Borough.

Part II

GEORGE ALBRIGHT BOYER
(1749 * 1814)

George Albright Boyer was born May 1, 1749, the son of Mathias & Catharine Boyer of Newberry township. He was married June 26, 1770 according to the register of Salem Lutheran Church in Dover, Penna. to Elizabeth Hinckel. Elizabeth was born August 23, 1752, the daughter of George & Barbara (Rowland) Hinckel of Lancaster County. The journal of John Philip Fetrow gives the date of this marriage as July 6, 1770. Albright and Elizabeth resided in Newberry township, a section of which later became Conewago township. They had eleven children, one of which is unknown and probably died at birth. Of the eleven children of Albright Boyer, six preceded him in death. He died 12/23/1814.

Elizabeth (Hinckel) Boyer passed away 11/3/1825. They are probably buried among the unknowns of Quickel's Cemetery.

The known children of Albright and Elizabeth were, namely: Jacob Boyer b. 10/19/1771 who married Eve _____, Catharine Boyer b. 2/17/1775, George Mathias Boyer b. 8/25/1776 who married EVA FETROW, (see Chapter 1 - Part II), John Gerhard Boyer b. 2/16/1778, Maria Elizabeth Boyer b. 12/18/1779 who married JOHN PHILIP FETROW (see Chapter 5), (I) John Boyer, Anna Maria "Anna Mary" (Boyer) Wolf b. 11/16/1783 d. 5/11/1825 who bore a daughter which died at birth. Anna Mary married Michael Wolf who died 7/28/1824, (II) Frederick Boyer, Maria Margaret Boyer b. 3/19/1789 and Barbara Boyer who was born 8/13/1792.

I. John Boyer b. 8/25/1781 had a wife named Christine who bore him three sons, namely: John Boyer, Jr. , (A) David Boyer and (B) Jonas Boyer. John Boyer, Sr. died in 1843.

A. David Boyer b. 3/20/1816 married Susan Sunday b. 11/14/1820 d. 5/18/1846. She bore to David two sons, namely: John and Peter before she died. After the death of Susan, David remarried to Elizabeth _____ b. 2/17/1830 d. 10/17/1879. David and Elizabeth had three sons, namely: (I) Henry Boyer, David Grant and J. Edwin Boyer. David Boyer died 2/19/1914 (C13).

1. Henry Boyer b. 7/18/1856 married Elmina Smyser who was born 12/25/1862. They had seven children, namely: Lloyd E. , John Omar, Joseph Henry, Mary E. , (a) Minnie (Boyer) Fetrow, (b) Ellen(Boyer) Fetrow, and Bruce S. Boyer. Henry Boyer passed away 5/5/1910, preceding Elmina who succumbed on 3/9/1914 (C-13).

a. Minnie (Boyer) Fetrow b. 8/9/1889 M. WILLIAM HENRY FETROW, (see Chapter 16).

b. Ellen (Boyer) Fetrow b. 5/4/1893 M. FRANKLIN BENJAMIN "Frank B." FETROW . (see Chapter 17).

B. Jonas Boyer b. 7/4/1818 d. 6/4/1875 married Huldah Kline b. 12/6/1828 d. March/1911. They had eight known children, plus other daughters, namely: Samuel, Abraham, Daniel, John, (I) Mary M. (Boyer) Hughes, Christiann, Mary Jane and Huldah. (C 13).

1. Mary Matilda (Boyer) Hughes b. 12/19/1860 d. 3/2/1929 married John Hughes b. 11/12/1854 d. 10/14/1897 (C 13). John was the son of Charles & Catharine (Pottinger) Hughes. They were married in 1877 and had 12 children, namely: (a) Ellen (Hughes) Wilt, Sarah Jane (Hughes) Lentz b. 2/26/1879 d. 4/23/1942 who married Reuben Forry and later remarried to Charles C. Lentz, Lizzie A. (Hughes) Fetrow who married EDWARD FETROW (see Chapter 26), Emma Hughes who died at birth on 10/10/1882, David Hughes b. 5/25/1884 who married Maude _____ and died in 1919, Arthur Hughes b. 3/21/1886 who married Mary _____, Charles Hughes b. 1/26/1888 who married Catherine Mummert, Mary M. (Hughes) Crone b. 10/17/1889 who married Lincoln N. Crone, Herman Hughes b. 4/26/1894 who married Daisy Arnold, Robert Hughes (twin to Herman) who married Elsie Laughman and died 1/30/1973, Annie (Hughes) Laughman b. 3/16/1896 who married Charles Laughman and Catharine (Hughes) Lemkelde b. 11/25/1897 who married Harry Lemkelde.

- a. Ellen (hughes) Wilt b. 10/24/1877 d. 5/17/1936 married Allen Wilt b. 1/1/1877, the illegitimate son of Daniel Wilt and Sevilla Wire (Sevilla later married JOHN B. FETTROW (see Chapter 17). Allen and Ellen were married 4/19/1896 and had nine children, namely: Fairy (Wilt) Sipe b. 9/28/1896 who married Walter Sipe, Robert Wilt b. 11/11/1897 who married Laura Grace Beaverson, Roger Wilt b. 7/26/1899 who married Lilly Ely, Nettie (Wilt) Lower b. 2/6/1901 who married Paul Lower, Paul Wilt b. 9/22/1902 who married Mary Emmaheiser, Ralph Wilt b. 4/16/1905 d. 9/17/1907, Dora (Wilt) Stanford b. 9/20/1906 who married Claude Ickes and later re-married to Millard Stanford, Luther Wilt b. 8/3/1908 who married Helen I. Bixler and Martha (Wilt) Plymire b. 3/8/1910 who married Timon Plymire. Allen Wilt passed away 5/6/1950 (C-15).

- II. Frederick Boyer b. 5/19/1787 d. 12/11/1845 (wife unknown) had one known son, namely: Jacob Byers b. 2/15/1816 d. 11/11/1883. Jacob and his wife Rebecca had four children, namely: William R. , Rebecca J. , Henry S. Byers (whose name appears on the death certificate of John B. Fettrow) and Abraham C. Byers. (C 12).

Philip Jacob Fetrow

1755 ~~to~~ 1834

One

PHILIP JACOB FETROW was born February 12, 1755 presumably in Newberry township, the first of the sons of Philip & Anna Mary Fedrow. His confirmation at Christ Lutheran Church took place in 1775 at the age of 20 years. This was the same year as his marriage to Catharine Hummel.

Catharine was born December 12, 1756, the only daughter of Johannes Gerhard & Barbara (Schuster) Hummel.

Gerhard Hummel was born in Germany on November 10, 1718. His wife Barbara, also from Germany was born May 20, 1718. They arrived in America September 29, 1753 on the ship "Rowand", one of the many ships which brought the Palatine immigrants to America from Germany, Via Holland in the early and mid 18th century. Gerhard and Barbara resided on a tract of land in Newberry township, close to the one acquired by Philip Fedrow in 1760.

Frederick Hummel, the only other child of Gerhard and Barbara was born August 12, 1758 in Newberry township. His wife's name was Christine and to this union were born, two known children, namely: Barbara Hummel b. 9/22/1785 and Johannes Hummel b. 3/11/1787 as recorded at Quickel's Church where they were christened.

At this point it can be assumed that the early residents of Newberry township took up farming in the new land, living off the land and helping to clear the dense wilderness. To the inhabitants of that township, it was known as "the redlands" due to the abundance of red clay in the soil. Newberry township was laid out in 1742. It included almost all of what became Fairview township in 1803 when it was formed and the eastern third of Conewago township which was formed in 1819. In 1783 the population of Newberry township numbered 1,704 persons, most of which were English Quakers.

Gerhard Hummel preceded his wife in death on December 19, 1790. Barbara (Schuster) Hummel passed from this earth life on May 14, 1792, six days before her 74th birthday.

In the will left by Barbara Hummel at her death, she left to her son Frederick, 20 shillings and "1/2 of the iron stove". To her daughter, Catharine FETTERO she left the other half of the iron stove. The balance of her estate went to her "two trusty sons" George and Jacob Meyer.

I do not know who George and Jacob Meyer were but as it appears Barbara was only married to Gerhard Hummel. Probably George and Jacob may have been "adopted" by Barbara in later years and she held them in higher esteem than her own natural children as can be seen by the way she divided up her estate.

Philip J. Fetrow and Catharine Hummel were united in holy matrimony on December 26, 1775, probably at Quickel's or Christ Lutheran Church. Philip served during the Revolutionary War under the command of Captain Michael Quickel in the 5th battalion of the York County Militia. It was this Michael Quickel for whom Quickel's Church was named. Michael and his wife Barbara donated the land on which the first church was built in 1770, the structure being made of logs and weather boarding.

Philip Fetrow deserted from the service on August 6, 1776, probably returning to his wife and home as his first son, the first of eleven children was born two months later. In 1778, Philip was fined eleven pounds and five shillings for refusing to perform his military duty.

The eleven children born to Philip and Catharine were: JOHN PHILIP FETROW b. 10/17/1776 who married Elizabeth Boyer (see Chapter 5), (I) Eva (Fetrow) Boyer, (II) MICHAEL FETTROW, (III) Andrew Fetrow, (IV) David Fetrow, MATHIAS FETROW b. 10/20/1787 who married Catharine Sipe (see Chapter 7), (V) Catharine (Fetrow) Weyer, (VI) Elizabeth (Fetrow) Borland, (VII) Lydia (Fetrow) Metzels, Leah Fetrow b. 9/25/1799 d. 5/14/1822 probably of smallpox, as it appears there was an epidemic that year and their last born, (VIII) JOSHUA FETROW.

Philip and Catharine spent the twilight of their marriage residing in the Borough of York which was officially incorporated September 24, 1787. The population of the borough in 1830 was 4,772 persons. The number of dwelling houses was over six hundred.

Catharine (Hummel) Fetrow departed this life in 1832 on the 26th day of February at the age of 75 years, 2 months and 14 days. In that same year of 1832, on December 6th, Philip remarried at the age of 77 years to Mrs. Elizabeth Stickel, a widow lady from Conewago township. Their brief union of companionship ended at 8 o'clock in the morning of July 5, 1834 when Philip went to meet his maker at the age of 79 years, 4 months and 23 days. He died intestate, leaving over 670 acres of land to be dispersed among his survivors.

A large tract of land in Conewago township was split up among three of his sons. One portion, a tract of 109 acres 105 perches went on a joint partnership between sons, Andrew and Joshua. The second part, a tract of 76 acres 56 perches went to Joshua. The third part went to John Philip, eldest of the sons of Philip and Catharine. It contained a saw mill and cooper shop and consisted of 192 acres 23 perches.

The second tract of land contained 155 acres 72 perches and was located in Conewago township. It went to Mathias Fetrow. The recipient of the third tract of land, a parcel of ground containing 60 acres of mountain land is unknown. It was likely sold outside the family, probably to settle outstanding debts which Philip may have owed at the time of his death.

The fourth tract, which contained 100 acres in Newberry township went to David Fetrow. The fifth tract, 15 acres 101 perches in Springettsbury township went to Elizabeth Borland, which she sold May 5, 1835 to Jacob Spangler for $287.50. Tract #6 went to Catharine Weyer and was also located in Springettsbury township. This parcel contained 4 acres 39 perches. Catharine and her husband Martin sold the property to her brother Joshua on June 13, 1835 for $500.

The 7th tract of land from the estate of Philip Jacob Fetrow was a lot in York Borough and was located on the east side of Queen Street. It went to Michael Fettrow. Number 8, also located in York Borough was a 230 foot square lot located on the west side of Queen Street. It was acquired by John Philip Fetrow.

The ninth lot, located on the southeast corner of Queen and Main (now Market) Streets was a two-story brick tavern stand. It went to Joshua Fetrow for $4,800. and was later to become known as "Fetrow's Tavern".

Andrew Fetrow acquired number 10 which was a half-lot of ground fronting on Main Street with a one story brick house. The last piece of property, the exact same description as number 10 went to Lydia Metzel.

I. EVA (Fetrow) BOYER b. 8/19/1778, second born of the children of Philip and Catharine married George Mathias Boyer who was born 8/25/1776 in Newberry township, the son of George Albright & Elizabeth (Hinckel) Boyer. They resided and raised their family on a 117 acre tract of land in Newberry township, deeded to Mathias from his father 7/28/1814, months before the death of the elder Boyer. This was a portion of Newberry township which later became Conewago township when it was formed in 1819.

Mathias and Eva had ten children, all of which were baptised at Quickel's Church. The children of Mathias and Eva were: Jacob Boyer b. 6/7/1798 d. 6/1/1822 in Spring Garden township of smallpox, Mathias Boyer b. 10/31/1799 d. 7/5/1822 in Spring Garden township of smallpox, Catharine (Boyer) Koch b. 6/26/1801 who married Henry Koch and resided in Philadelphia where she had two children, Sabina Boyer b. 12/25/1803, Abraham Boyer b. 9/17/1805, David Boyer b. 5/25/1807 who was known to reside in Philadelphia, John George Boyer b. 6/13/1809 who went to Texas around 1852 and wasn't heard from again, Margaret Boyer b. 7/30/1811, Philipus Boyer b. 3/1/1813 and Daniel Boyer b. 7/13/1815. Of the Boyer children, presumably, Sabina, Abraham, Margaret, Philipus and Daniel died young. What became of Mathias and Eva is unknown but it appears they may have moved to Philadelphia.

II. MICHAEL FETTROW b. 8/22/1780, 3rd born of Philip and Catharine had a wife named Mary, the surname of which I believe to be Schneider as Schneiders sponsored the baptisms of two of their children, the other two of which were sponsored by Fetrows. The baptism of their fifth child lists no sponsor. A birth is recorded on 3/18/1777 of an Anna Maria Schneider to Martin and Elizabeth Schneider. Mary was residing with her daughter and son in law, Henry & Sarah Fink in the York Co. census of 1870 giving her age as 93 years which concurs with the 1777 birthdate.

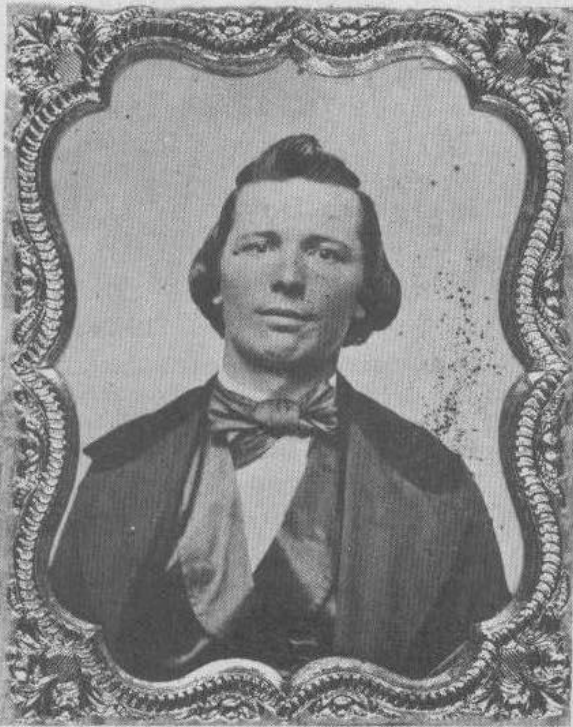

Michael and Mary had five children, namely: (A) SAMUEL FETTROW, HENRY M. FETTROW b. 3/17/1807 who married Catharine Mayer (see Chapter 8), (B) Susanna (Fettrow) Welcomer, GEORGE FETTROW b. 1/20/1812 who married Susan Fink (see Chapter 11), and (C) Sarah (Fettrow) Fink. Michael and Mary resided in Conewago township where Michael farmed his land. He was a farmer until his death on 7/12/1855 at the age of 74 years. His estate was not settled until 1863. The death of Mary is unknown, but it is likely that she and Michael are buried among the unmarked graves at Quickel's Church as Henry and Sarah Fink are buried there.

A. SAMUEL FETTROW b. 2/21/1805 in Newberry township (later Conewago) and christened at Quickels on May 5th of that year, the sponsors being his grandparents, Philip & Catharine Fetrow. Samuel was married 3/11/1830 at Quickel's Church by the Rev. John George Smucker to Maria Bruaw. Maria was born 1/26/1803 in the Conewago area of Newberry township, the daughter of Daniel & Catharine Bruaw. She was baptised at Quickels on August 28th of that year, the sponsors being Henry & Maria Mathias.

Six sons and one daughter were born to Samuel & Mary, namely: DANIEL FETTROW b. 7/24/1830 who married Sarah Wilt (see Chapter 15), George B. Fettrow b. ca. 1832 who moved to Illinois, JOHN B. FETTROW b. 1/21/1835 who married Margaret Jane Yencel (see Chapter 17), (1) Jacob B. Fettrow, Rudolph "RUDY" FETTROW b. 4/17/1840 who married Lydia (Hollerbush) Crone (see Chapter 20), (2) Leah (Fettrow) Sunday and ANDREW B. FETTROW b. Aug/1845 who married Leah Sipe (see Chapter 22).

Samuel Fettrow came down with typhoid fever in the summer of 1854, the effects of which he never recovered from. He succumbed to the fever on 9/5/1854 at the age of 49 years, 6 months and 14 days - (C 15).

After the rest of her children grew up and left home, Mary went to live with her son, John B. Fettrow and his family. It was here that she died 7/27/1880 at the age of 77 years, 6 months and 1 day. (C 15).

1. JACOB B. FETTROW b. 12/29/1837 in Conewago township was christened at Quickels on 8/9/1838. Jacob was 4th born of Samuel and Mary. He had a wife named Amanda who bore to him one daughter, namely: Margaret Ann Fettrow b. March/1864. Jacob and Amanda resided in Conewago township where he died 8/20/1865 at the age of 27 years, 8 months and 20 days - (C 15).
 2. LEAH (Fettrow) SUNDAY b. 7/23/1842 in Conewago township became the second wife of Joseph Sunday who was born 6/28/1831. They resided in Fairview township where Joseph was a farmer by occupation. Leah bore to him nine children, namely: Rudy Sunday b. ca.1865, Emma (Sunday) Bixler b. ca.1867 who married Arthur Bixler, Harriet "Hattie" Sunday b. ca.1871 who never married, Annie M. (Sunday) Bowers b. 6/7/1873 who married Raymond Bowers, Bella G. Sunday b. 1/20/1876 - d. 2/23/1876, Nora (Sunday) Zimmerman b. ca. 1877 who married Edward Zimmerman, Carrie Sunday who died in childbirth, Alice (Sunday) Shope b. ca.1880 and Elmer Sunday b. 11/21/1882 - d. 1/8/1964 who married Mary Irene Danner. Joseph Sunday passed away 2/7/1891, preceding Leah who succumbed 4/29/1917 - (C-09).
- B. SUSANNA (Fettrow) WELCOMER b. 5/27/1809 in Conewago township, third born of Michael and Mary was married 12/22/1836 to Benjamin Welcomer, Jr. who was born 2/11/1814, the son of Benjamin & Anna Mary Welcomer. Two daughters are recorded to this marriage, namely: Sarah Welcomer b. 11/11/1837 and baptized at Salem Lutheran Church in Dover and Mary Welcomer b. 12/10/1840 who died on her 13th birthday - (C-12). There may have been other children. Susanna Welcomer departed this life 6/5/1875 and is buried at Pleasant Grove United Brethren Cemetery in Fairview township. She and Ben resided in Newberry township.
- C. SARAH (Fettrow) FINK b. 1/12/1815 in Conewago township (Newberry at the time of her birth), last-born of the children of Michael and Mary. Sarah married Henry Fink who was born 11/28/1807. They resided at Strinestown in Conewago township. The births of six children are recorded at Quickels, namely: Margaret Fink b. 1/10/1840, Sarah Ann Fink b. 12/25/1841, Susan Fink b. 2/7/1844, Eliza Fink b. 2/22/1846, George Fink b. 7/25/1848 and Ellen Fink b. 4/7/1852. Henry Fink passed away on 6/23/1882, preceding Sarah who succumbed to dropsy on 6/26/1898 - (C-15).
- III. ANDREW FETROW b. 11/2/1782, 4th born of Philip & Catharine resided in Silver Spring township, Cumberland County. The name of his wife is unknown but he had three children, namely: Benjamin Fetrow who was known to reside in Stark County, Ohio in the mid 19th century, (A) Mary Ann (Fetrow) Seabrooks and Leah (Fetrow) Nicely (probably Knisely) who resided at Churchtown, Cumberland County. Andrew Fetrow died 9/9/1836 at the age of 53 years. Burial place unknown.
- A. MARY ANN (Fetrow) SEABROOKS (birth unknown) resided in Cumberland County where she married the Reverend J. C. Seabrooks. The Seabrooks had three children of which one was deceased prior to 1864 and is unknown. The surviving children were Silas L. and Clarence C. Seabrooks.

IV. DAVID FETROW b. 11/28/1784 5th born of Philip & Catharine was christened 3/28/1785 at Quickels, the sponsors being Gerhard & Barbara Hummel. David was married 5/10/1808 to Barbara Freysinger who was born 4/21/1785, the daughter of Ludwig & Elisabeth Freysinger. David Fetrow had eight children of which the first three were definitely born to Barbara. Barbara (Freysinger) Fetrow died sometime between 1814 and 1820 as David remarried in 1820 to Anna Maria Lewis who was born 10/30/1790.

The eight children of David Fetrow were, namely: (A) Salome (Fetrow) Peters, Elizabeth (Fetrow) Anderson b. 4/27/1810 who married John Anderson and resided in York County, (B) Barbara (Fetrow) Tate, Ellis Fetrow, 4th born of David (probably to Barbara) who resided at Mechanicsburg in Cumberland County, Leah (Fetrow) Franklin, 5th born of David, (C) PHILIP FETROW, Mary (Fetrow) Walker who moved to Missouri where she reportedly had one daughter, namely: Adaline Walker. David Fetrow b. 9/16/1828 d. 6/5/1830 was also probably a son of David and Mary. Mary (Lewis) Fetrow passed away 2/27/1849, preceding David who succumbed 2/22/1853 at the age of 66 years. Burial of David and Mary are unknown.

A. SARAH SALOME (Fetrow) PETERS b. 10/2/1808 and baptised at Quickels, the sponsors being Jacob & Catharine Freysinger. At the age of 23-years, Sally gave birth to an illegitimate daughter, namely: (1) MARTHA MATILDA, Lawyer Donald Yost made a speculation when he wrote his epic poem about Joshua Fetrow's will (see Part VIII - this Chapter) that Joshua himself was the father of Martha as old Joshua listed her in his will as "a relative of mine", and made lifelong provisions for her after his death.

On 4/4/1848, Sally was married at the age of 40 years to Samuel Peters b. 1/25/1810. It must have been a 2nd marriage for Sam as the census of 1850 shows him residing in the south ward of York Borough. He lists his occupation as laborer and residing also in the household were three children, namely: Samuel age 15, Mary age 12 and Emma-line Peters, age 10. Salome (Fetrow) Peters died 8/16/1890 followed by Sam, two years later on 10/17/1892 - (C 14).

1. MARTHA MATILDA (Fetrow-Wilson) BECK b. 1/27/1832, the illegitimate daughter of Salome Fetrow, was sixteen years old when her mother married. This was probably when she went to live with Joshua & Sarah Fetrow to perform the domestic chores at his residence next to "Fetrow's Tavern". Joshua was an uncle to Martha's mother and if the previous speculations were correct, he was also Martha's father. When Joshua wrote up his will he knew the lady in question as Matilda Wilson which would lead one to believe that the father of Martha was named Wilson, else why would she use it.

Joshua wrote a codicil to his will on 2/13/1864, two weeks prior to his death. In this codicil he states that he has learned since the writing of the initial will that Martha was christened under the name of Martha Matilda Fetrow. It would seem at this point that Sally informed Joshua on his deathbed of his fatherhood. Martha must also have been ignorant of the fact if it be true, since it was not until Joshua's death that she started using the surname of Fetrow. It was under the name of Martha M. Fetrow that she was married 11/26/1865 to John Valentine Beck, better known around town as "Wallie" Beck.

John V. Beck was born ca. 1838 and served during the Civil War with Company "K" 87th Regiment P. V. I. as a private.

Martha (Fetrow) Beck died in childbirth 6/24/1866, six months and 28 days after her marriage to Beck. Her age at death was 34 years, 4 months and 27 days (C 14).

In keeping with the specifications of Joshua's will, the two properties left to Martha were sold, as she had no heirs. The first property was the dwelling house next to the tavern. The 2nd property, located on Plank Road (now known as Lauck's Mill Road) contained about 20 acres. The proceeds of the two sales, totaled some $15,000. John V. Beck succumbed 7/1/1904.

B. BARBARA (Fetrow) TATE b. 9/27/1814, third born of David and Barbara was married 5/7/1835 to Solomon Tate, Jr. who was born 8/22/1805, the son of Solomon and Susanna Tate of Fairview township. Nine daughters were born to this union, They resided in Monoghan township. Solomon Tate, Jr. died 10/10/1875, preceding Barbara who succumbed on her 75th birthday.

C. PHILIP FETROW b. ca. 1822 (?) 6th born of David was deceased prior to 1864. There is a Rebecca Fetrow listed in the city of York directory of 1882 listing herself as the widow of Philip. Also a Rebecca Fetrow (widow) b. 1830 d. 1/3/1894 was buried at Parkville Cemetery in Newberry township. This is the same Rebecca Fetrow whose name appears on the tombstone of Elizabeth Witmer. This tombstone is located next to those of John W. Fetrow and his wife, Mary A. (Witmer) Fetrow, indicating that Rebecca was probably John W.'s mother. Elizabeth Witmer was his aunt and probably a sister to Rebecca.

The Philip Fetrow we are talking about here had three children, namely: Mary (Fetrow) Rupp who married George Rupp and resided in Cumberland County, William Fetrow, serving with the U. S. Army in 1864 and John Fetrow who was residing in Conewago township, was under the age of 14 years and in need of a guardian. There is no conclusive proof, but all evidence indicates that the aforementioned John Fetrow is the same John W. Fetrow whose descendants are listed in Chapter 24 of this book.

V. CATHARINE (Fetrow) WEYER b. 11/15/1790, 7th born of Philip and Catharine was married 4/23/1812 to Martin Weyer. Martin was born 4/3/1788 in Newberry township (later Conewago), the son of Ludwig & Elisabeth Weyer. The sponsors to Martin's baptism at Quickels were George and Salome Miller. Seven children are recorded to Martin & Catharine who resided in Conewago township. Their children: Sara Weyer b. 3/19/1820, Elizabeth (Weyer) Hall who died in 1909, Polly (Weyer) Schumaker, first married to a man named Scoville, later remarried to Schumaker, (resided in Stark Co, Ohio), Philip Weyer who resided at Seymour, Indiana, Catharine (Weyer) Lehr, first married to Soverans, later remarried to Lehr, Caroline (Weyer) Smith b. 4/27/1834 d. 1907 who resided in Con-schocton County, Ohio and Solomon Weyer who left a widow and one son at his death in 1864. Catharine (Fetrow) Weyer died prior to 1864.

VI. ELIZABETH (Fetrow) BORLAND b. 12/20/1793 was married 6/29/1813 to Andrew Borland who was born in 1783. Andrew and Elizabeth had eight children before his untimely demise 4/27/1826. The first two children were recorded at Quickels. Sometime between 1815 and 1818, Andrew and Elizabeth moved from Conewago township to York Borough. The Borland children: (A) John Borland, Catharine Borland b. 9/27/1815 who never married and died 12/1/1905, Amelia A. (Borland) Baker who died 7/14/1906, (B) William Borland, Leah Borland b. 7/13/1820, Margaret M. Borland b. 8/5/1821 d. 6/4/1841, Emily Borland b. 4/20/1824, and (C) Andrew Jackson Borland. Ten years after the death of Andrew, Elizabeth gave birth to another son, namely: (D) Zacharias F. Borland. Elizabeth (Fetrow) Borland passed on in 1875 on March 30th. (C-14).

A. John Borland b. 5/16/1814 and his wife Sarah Ann had five children according to the registry of Christ Lutheran Church, namely: Henrietta Margaret (Borland) Gruber b. 9/14/1846 who was married 4/17/1866 to Benjamin F. Gruber and died 4/11/1914 without issue, Susanna Elizabeth Borland b. 8/28/1850 - d. 12/11/1899 was unmarried but bore a daughter, namely: Gertrude (Borland) Barnhart, John Frederick Isacher Borland b. 4/9/1858, Amelia Jane (Borland) Rupp b. 9/8/1860 and William Andrew Borland b. 11/28/1862. John Borland died 2/16/1882, preceding Sarah who succumbed 10/2/1898.

B. William Borland b. 2/8/1818 according to the registry at Christ Lutheran Church. His tombstone lists his birth as 2/10/1818. His wife's name was Jane and she bore to him four children, namely: (1) John A. Borland, (2) Festus Borland, Mary E. (Borland) Yundt and Richard A. Borland. Jane died 8/23/1865, preceding William who succumbed on 11/4/1877 (C-14).

1. John A. Borland had a wife named Kate and two sons, namely: Herbert & Edgar Borland. John A. Borland died in 1907.

2. Festus Borland had a wife named Margaret and three daughters, namely: Mina (Borland) Crandall, Jane Borland who never married and Edythe (Borland) Yundt. Festus Borland died 8/6/1914.

C. Andrew Jackson Borland b. 11/19/1825 had a wife named Margaret Ann. They had an adopted daughter, namely: Kate O. (Borland) King. Andrew J. Borland died 12/5/1880, preceding Margaret Ann who succumbed 9/19/1881.

D. Zacharias Fetrow Borland b. 4/22/1836 was apparently born to Elizabeth after the death of her husband. Her name alone is listed at his christening at Christ Lutheran Church. Zacharias had a wife named Mary Ann and the birth of one child is recorded at Christ Lutheran, namely: Edward Franklin Borland b. 10/24/1859.

VII. LYDIA ANN (Fetrow) METZEL b. 5/9/1797 ninth born of Philip and Catharine was married 8/13/1820 to John Metzel of York. John was born 10/19/1798. They resided in York Borough where the births of three children are recorded at Christ Lutheran, namely: Catharine (Metzel) Smith b. 8/7/1822 who married Ephraim Smith and resided in York Borough, (A) George W. Metzel and Anna Maria Metzel b. 8/17/1835 who apparently was unmarried but bore an illegitimate daughter and was deceased prior to 1864. John Metzel preceded his wife in death on 11/28/1841. Lydia (Fetrow) Metzel succumbed 3/9/1854 - (C-08).

A. George Worlington Metzel b. 12/15/1824 had a wife named Eliza Ann. The birth of one daughter is recorded at Christ Lutheran, namely: Clara Elizabeth Metzel b. 2/14/1851. George and Eliza moved to Baltimore, Maryland.

VIII. JOSHUA FETROW b. 12/5/1802, last-born of the children of Philip and Catharine (Hummel) Fetrow. Joshua married Sarah Small who was born 9/17/1795. In her lifetime, Sarah bore no children to her husband. Joshua and Sarah resided in the south ward of York Borough in the house next to Fetrow's Tavern which was located at the corner of Queen and Main (now Market) Streets. This is directly across the street from the First Presbyterian Church (formerly known as The English Presbyterian Church). In the old graveyard of this church is buried James Smith, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence from Pennsylvania. James Smith died at his residence in York Borough on 7/11/1806.

On November 20, 1863, Joshua Fetrow, knowing he was dying, summoned Squire George Shetter to his bedside to draw up his last will and testament, instructing him as to which of his relatives should get what.

George Shetter sat up late that night, paging through various legal texts, forming Joshua's will the way he thought the old man wanted it. Shetter comprehended little of what he was writing, as law was not his profession. The following day, George Shetter presented his masterpiece to Joshua Fetrow. The dying man read over his will and perceived it to be the way he wanted it. The last will and testament of Joshua Fetrow was signed and sealed in the presence of Shetter and one Jacob Buchar.

Joshua was not far off in his timing when he decided to write up his will. February 25th of the following year, Joshua took his last breath of life and passed into a more peaceful world, creating another world, something less than peaceful for those who survived him. He was laid to rest at Prospect Hill Cemetery in North York with his wife Sarah who predeceased him by nine months, dying on the 21st day of May in '63.

The will of Joshua Fetrow was probated and presented to the local legal profession for interpretation. The lawyers which endeavored to interpret it maintained that in all their years at the bar, seeing all sorts of wills and testaments that this "gem" was one of a kind.

Probably Judge Sharswood described it best when he said of Squire Shetter's creation. "We have before us a very inartificially drawn will, from which we are to gather the intention of the testator as far as it can be from the four corners of the instrument itself. It often happens that an unskilful scrivener, who uses technical words and legal phrases creates more difficulty than would the unlearned testator himself had he employed his own simple language to express his meaning."

The beneficiaries to Joshua's will were Michael M. Fettrow, son of Henry M. Fetrow of Conewago township who resided with Joshua and handled his agricultural interests - (see Chapter 19). Also named were Matilda Wilson as named in the original will and later referred to in the codicil of 2/13/1864 as Martha Matilda Fetrow who also resided with Joshua at the time of his death, tending to the domestic chores, Lucinda Dietz, widow of Daniel Dietz and a niece to Sarah (Small) Fetrow. Lucinda also resided with Joshua. She later remarried to John Rutter. Also named were Henry M. Fetrow, Jr. (twin brother to Michael), his wife and children (see Chapter 8), Elizabeth Borland, sister to Joshua, her son John Borland, the descendants of Catharine Weyer, also a sister to Joshua who was deceased, Emanuel Small, son of John Small and a nephew to the late Sarah (Small) Fetrow. Another nephew to Sarah was also named, namely: Jacob Luttmann. The executors of the will were Samuel Hay and George Shetter.

The portions of the will which could be complied with were executed and Michael received his acreage on Lauck's Mill Road. Martha received her property as did Lucinda Dietz.

Joshua also stated in his will that an iron fence be placed around the graves of he and his wife and set aside a fund of fifty dollars for upkeep of the fence. This fence remained until World War II when it was removed and melted down for the war effort.

For fifty-three years after the death of Joshua Fettrow, the will hung around the courts defying interpretation, due to the peculiar wording used by Squire Shetter. It wasn't until 1915 and the death of Michael Fettrow that the mystery of the will began to unravel. He and Lucinda had been the only two surviving beneficiaries of the will. Lucinda Rutter, again a widow died the previous year on December 15th.

The death of Michael enabled the baffled legal profession to determine who was who in the will and who got what, something which they were previously unable to determine.

Besides the six surviving children of Michael M. Fettrow, some fifty people sought to get their share of the remainder of Joshua's estate, all of which were descendants of the original "legatees" of the will. Among these "heirs" were also the children of the brothers and sisters of John Valentine Beck, widower of Martha, all seeking what was rightfully theirs, many of which were sorely disappointed at their inherited wealth when they finally received it.

The six surviving children of Michael M. Fettrow, namely: Eli, William Henry, Ellen Stevenson, Annie Eline, Joshua and Ida Bufflap received the bulk of the estate, each receiving $807.08. The various other appellees received sums varying between $5. and $141., most of which were less than $100. The exception to this was Prudence E. Morningstar, executrix to the estate of Lucinda Rutter. She received $353.10.

Even after the haze of battle had cleared, the lawyers who attended the will were not entirely sure that the proper persons were receiving what was entitled to them.

NOTE: The original will written by George Shetter and signed by Joshua Fettrow is on file at the York County Historical Society, donated by Muriel Boyd, grand-daughter of Michael M. Fettrow. Also on file is a copy of the parody of Joshua's will written by Donald Yost, ESQ. in 1915.

Michael B. Fetrow

TWO

MICHAEL B. FETROW was born ca. 1757, the second son of Philip and Anna Mary Fedrow. He served in the York County Militia during the Revolutionary War, guarding prisoners at Camp Security in 1781. (see news article on CAMP SECURITY at the end of this chapter).

Michael's first wife was named Elizabeth, the marriage of which produced two children, namely: (I) Johannes Fetrow and (II) Elizabeth (Fetrow) Meyer. Presumably Michael's first wife died and he remarried to Barbara _____, who was born ca. 1774. To this union were born four sons and a daughter, namely: (III) Jonas Fetrow, (IV) Mathias M. Fetrow, (V) Catharine (Fetrow) Laughman, (VI) Joseph Fetrow and Joel Fetrow b. ca. 1810 who resided in Lower Allen township, Cumberland County according to the census of 1850 and 1870.

Michael and Barbara resided in Newberry township, where he farmed and operated a distillery. At the time of his death, around 1827, Michael owned about 410 acres of land, most of which was located in Newberry township.

- I. JOHANNES "John" FETROW b. 7/2/1785, first of Michael and Elizabeth apparently was unmarried and died in March of 1826. On 11/7/1826, his half-brother Jonas Fetrow purchased his 80 acre tract of land in Newberry township for $162.74. This was on petition of Joseph McCreary, administrator of the estate to cover John's debts which apparently far exceeded the value of his holdings.
- II. ELIZABETH (Fetrow) MEYER b. ca. 1787 married George Meyer who was born 3/22/1791, the son of Jacob & Elisabeth Meyer of Newberry township (later Conewago). Sponsors to his baptism at Quickels were George & Salome Miller. George & Elizabeth had one known son, namely: Samuel Meyer b. ca. 1814. George died prior to 1828. Elizabeth's step-mother, Barbara was residing with her and her son in Conewago township in the census of 1850.
- III. JONAS FETROW (birth unknown). eldest son of Michael and Barbara resided in Newberry township, where he probably farmed. He married Margaret Vickers who was born 10/17/1803 (according to the date on her tombstone). The census of 1840 lists six children, but later records indicate there were only five. The children of Jonas and Margaret were: Abraham S. Fetrow b. 2/7/1823, (A) Daniel Fetrow, (B) John Fetrow, Lena (Fetrow) Barnhart who died in 1850 leaving her daughter Mahala Barnhart b. 1849 residing with her grandmother Margaret. The last born of Jonas & Margaret was Maria Fetrow b. ca. 1833.

Jonas Fetrow died on 7/11/1849, but his burial place is unknown. A deed, dated 3/28/1853 makes mention of a section of property owned by Jonas whereon, Daniel and his wife Sarah were supposed to erect a dwelling house for Margaret in which she was to reside until her death. This area of land was located near a graveyard which existed on the property. It is a good possibility that Jonas was buried in this graveyard, the passage of time which has since obscured its existence. Margaret (Vickers) Fetrow died 9/17/1862 - (C-13).

A. DANIEL FETROW b. 1/7/1825 married Sarah (Nighclough-?) who was born ca. 1827. Daniel was a farmer in Newberry township, and he and Sarah had five children, namely: George N. Fetrow b. ca. 1850 who became the second husband of Sarah Jane (Fetrow) Strominger, the daughter of David P. & Barbara (Shetter) Fetrow of York Haven, (see Chapter 5 - Part II-C). George and Sarah moved to California. Second born of Daniel and Sarah was John Fetrow b. ca-1851, followed by Andrew Nighclough Fetrow b. 1/10/1852 who apparently resided in Kansas after marrying Barbara Catherine Fetrow, the daughter of William S. & Sarah (Good) Fetrow, (see Chapter 16 - Part II). The fourth born of Daniel and Sarah was Ephraim Fetrow b. ca. 1856 who was residing with his guardian Abraham Miller in the census of 1870. Ephraim Fetrow died December/1875 of consumption at the home of Charles Coble. The last born of Daniel and Sarah was Rachel Fetrow b. ca. 1859. Daniel Fetrow died 6/28/1865 at the age of 40 years - (C-13).

B. JOHN FETROW (birth unknown). A marriage is recorded on 12/8/1853 between John Fetrow, son of Jonas and Margaret Fetrow and Sarah Wyer, daughter of David & Elizabeth Wyer. This is the same John Fetrow who died Feb/1856 leaving a widow Sarah and two small children, (names unknown).

IV. MATHIAS M. FETROW b. ca. 1798 second born of Michael and Barbara was probably the same Mathias Fetrow who was married in 1820 to Maria Felty b. ca. 1787. They resided in Conewago township. I believe this to be the same Mathias Fetrow listed in the 1830 census with six children and again in 1840 with eight children. The identities of these children are unknown.

V. CATHARINE (Fetrow) LAUGHMAN (birth unknown) married Daniel Laughman, Jr. the son of Daniel & Elizabeth Laughman of Dover township. Daniel & Catharine resided in Newberry township where he was a cordwainer (shoemaker) by trade.

VI. JOSEPH FETROW b. ca. 1808 married Catharine Felty. Joseph was a cooper (barrelmaker) by trade in Fairview township, after moving from Newberry township around 1840. The census of 1850 shows him residing in Cumberland County - North Middleton township. The census of 1840 when he was residing in Fairview township, lists four children, the names of which are unknown.

YORK — Camp Security. A pleasant, comforting name. Deliberately chosen, perhaps, to appease anxious York County citizens about the presence of thousands of enemy prisoners of war marched into town in August of 1781 to occupy the hastily built camp east of town.

That was 198 years ago this month and coincidentally Camp Security is once again in the news as archaeologists dig into the long forgotten camp site at Story Brook for relics and building foundations.

There was certainly nothing comfortable or pleasant in this prison pen for the wretched remnants of Gen. Burgoyne's so-called "convention" army and the troops captured with Cornwallis at Yorktown, Va.

Time has thrown a cloak of mystery embroidered with fact and fancy over Camp Security. Why were these British prisoners sent to York? Why was the actual site of the camp never found? Local traditions are colorful and varied. Accuracy and folklore mingle in unknown quantities.

Now, at last, in 1979 almost two hundred years later, this significant phase of Revolutionary history is being unraveled through a joint project conducted by Historic York Inc., the Pennsylvania Historic and Museum Commission, and Springettsbury Township Planning Commission.

JOHN R. SCHEIN, director of Historic York and Roark Mitzell, research assistant, digging into dusty records and books on local history have discovered surprising unknown facts about York during the critical years of the Revolutionary War. Archaeology students and dedicated volunteers supervised by Historic York field director, Charles Hunter, and state archaeologist, Dr. Harry Kent are ending an eight week "dig" with gratifying results.

Two hundred years of extensive farming of the area has left none of the original surface soil and because of this continuous movement of the earth, no profile of the original pattern of the stockade or housing has been revealed. However, the 100 refuse and fire pits disclosed in the yellow subsoil by bulldozing to a depth of about 10 inches, definitely pinpoint this as the site of the village where Saratoga prisoners were confined, they say.

During the hot summer days, archaeologists have been on their knees working with tape measure, trowel and brush. Thousands of artifacts have been carefully recorded on grid sheets and put into bags for later evaluation in the laboratory. Shards include uniform buttons and buckles, a few Spanish and English coins, redware and stoneware pottery, the stem of a wine glass and broken bottles. Also an adze with a broken handle, fragments of metal, bits of brick, scraps of window glass and little bundles of hundreds of straight pins — everything has significance in the final analysis, said Schein.

The real story of Camp Security began at Saratoga, N.Y. on Oct. 17, 1777, when Gen. John Burgoyne, following strict military etiquette, presented his sword to victorious Gen. Horatio Gates.

"The fortunes of war Gen. Gates has made me your prisoner," he said. To sound of muffled fife and drum, the remnants of Burgoyne's army, numbering about 5,800 men, stacked their arms on the level plain above the banks of the Hudson near the ruins of old Fort Hardy and became prisoners of war.

ACCORDING TO THE terms of surrender they were to march to Boston to board ships for England, never to serve again in North America. This convention in lieu of capitulation almost nullified the first American victory. An alert Congress would not permit these terms and the conventioners remained in America. The convention was lodged in eight of the 13 states at one time or another and traveled more than a thousand miles before they finally came to York.

In June of 1781 Lt. William Scott received orders from Joseph Reed, president of Provincial Council of Pennsylvania to: "Mark out a suitable place, well wooded and watered for the accommodation of enemy prisoners where they may build huts which must be picketed."

Scott, according to records, selected a plantation about four miles west of York which had about 100 acres of cleared land and 30 acres of timber. This land farmed by a tenant was apparently taken without permission of the owner David Brubaker. A memorial addressed to the Pennsylvania Council and to Maj. Gen. Benjamin Lincoln dated December, 1781 seems to substantiate this fact. Brubaker most humbly . . . "Showeth that the persons constructing the stockades and huts have made use of large quantities of wood, impairing the plantation in value. The guards used and destroyed all rails depriving the tenant of Indian Corn thereon and the benefit of pasturage for his animals. . . ."

He went on to say . . . "I do not flatter myself that the prisoners can be removed at this inclement season of the year; I must submit to the inconvenience; yet I humbly request that immediate orders be given to the officers to prevent further waste and destruction of property."

It was this memorial which led researchers to records of deeds and helped to verify the site formerly only documented as being four miles east of York Town.

Prisoners incarcerated in Charlottesville, Va. after the long trek south from Massachusetts, were ordered moved to Fort Frederick, Md. when war in the south intensified late in 1780. By now deaths, desertions and partial exchanges had reduced their number to about 4,000.

SHORTLY AFTER THE poor unfortunates settled into Frederick prison, orders from Continental Congress set them on the road to York to prevent their rescue.

What a sorry looking lot they were by this time. One account noted that uniforms were so well patched with various colored scraps that only bits of the bright red cloth was now visible.

Hannah Williams wrote to a friend . . . "I never had the least idea that Creation produced such a sordid set of creatures in human figure — poor, dirty, emaciated men, great numbers of women who seemed to be the beasts of burden, having a bushel basket on their backs by which they were bent double. The contents seemed to be pots and kettles, various sorts of furniture. Children peeping through the gridirons, some very young infants who must have been born on the road, the women in bare feet, clothed in dirty rags . . ."

The poor huts and barracks erected at the camp gave minimum shelter. "Excessive cold, skin and eyes spoiled by smoke . . . only flour available no meat for many days . . . the fire cakes turn our guts to pasteboard . . . we need breeches, shoes and blankets . . . much sickness, no medicine."

In August of 1781 Surgeon's Mate Ben Shield described conditions for Brig. Gen. James Hamilton. "There is much jail fever. Women and children are taken, too. Foundations were laid for a hospital but they fall sick so fast there are not enough men to attend the sick and proceed with building. There are sick, dying and dead from the infernal distemper."

SCANTY PROVISIONS were sometimes improved with rice and pork. Some farmers gave straw for thatching the huts, small parties of prisoners were allowed to go out to cut wood under guard. Conditions must have gradually improved because later accounts tell of a little village outside the stockade where Saratoga prisoners engaged in cottage industries. British prisoner Roger Lamb who kept a diary of his experiences during the war years noted that, ". . . about 200 yards from the pen, a small village has been built by the remains of Gen. Burgoyne's army who are allowed great privileges with respect to their liberty in the country. When I entered little York, I was agreeably surprised at meeting former comrades; and more so when a pass was put in my hands, giving me the privileges of ten miles of country round while I was well and orderly. I was then conducted to a hut which my loving comrades had built for me in their village before my arrival. Here, I remained for some time, visiting my comrades from hut to hut; but I was astonished at the industry of them. Men, women, and even children were employed making lace, buckles, spoons and exercising other mechanical trades which they learned during their captivity. They had great liberty from the Americans and were allowed to go around the country and sell their goods; while the soldiers of Lord Cornwallis army are closely confined to their pen . . ."

Records do not agree on the number of prisoners impounded at Camp Security but they seem to suggest that 2,000 to 4,000 of Burgoyne's army and later about 1,500 captured troops of Lord Cornwallis were in York for several years until the end of war, in April 1783. No evidence has come to light to explain when or how the camp was disbanded.

With victory assured, tempers cooled. Guards were withdrawn. Stockade and huts deserted. Victor and vanquished parted to follow separate paths. Camp Security, once so important, quietly entered its slot in the history of the birth of our nation.

All of the people involved in this rediscovery of an important part of Revolutionary history in York, are well pleased with the data and artifacts that have been collected. Without their concerted efforts and dedication to the project this segment of history would have been lost to modern day expansion. They hope to continue their research until the story begun on that October day in 1777 is complete.

Joseph Fetrow

Three

JOSEPH FETROW was born October 10, 1759 in Newberry township, York County, the third son of Philip & Anna Mary Fedrow. He served in the York County Militia during the Revolutionary War under the command of Captain Michael Quickel, deserting his duty in 1776. He was apprehended in 1777 and forced to pay a fine for desertion.

A marriage is recorded at the First Reformed Church of York, on November 10, 1778 between Joseph Fetrow and Catharine Fischer.

Catharine Fischer was the second born of the seven children of Gottlieb & Ursula (Hoffstodt) Fischer. A discrepancy exists here as "The Fishers of Fishing Creek Valley" states that this Catharine Fischer who married Joseph Fetrow was born in 1778. This of course does not concur with the birth of their first child, Joseph Fetrow, Jr. who was born in 1780. It might also be noted that in "Fishing Creek Valley" that there is only a partial listing of the children of Joseph & Catharine, the listing of which concurs with the total listing below.

Joseph Fetrow was appointed one of the administrators of Gottlieb Fischer's estate upon his death in 1790.

It is likely that Joseph Fetrow was a farmer in Fairview township where he resided (formerly Newberry township). He and Catharine had twelve children, namely: (I) JOSEPH FETROW, JR., Elizabeth (Fetrow) Hoff b. 3/7/1781 who was married 2/18/1797 to John Hoff, JOHN FETTROW b. 11/1/1782 who married Nancy Yinger (see Chapter 6), (II) DAVID FETROW, Susanna (Fetrow) Hoff b. 11/28/1784 (not listed among the survivors of Joseph in 1822) who married Jacob Hoff, Martin Fetrow b. ca. 1786 who resided in Fairview township with his wife Elizabeth, (III) ABRAM FETROW, (IV) Emanuel Fetrow, Samuel Fetrow of which nothing is known, (V) Daniel Fetrow, (VI) Catharine (Fetrow) Steel and Esther (Fetrow) Grissinger b. ca. 1801 - d. 5/25/1879 (C-21) who was first married to Emanuel Eppley. Esther had no issue to either of her husbands, the second of which was Jacob Grissinger b. 10/4/1787 - d. 1/22/1862 (C-21).

Joseph Fetrow, Sr. died May 18, 1818 at the age of 58 years, 7 months and 8 days, preceding his wife, Catharine who died July 14, 1831. They were supposedly buried in the area of Lewisberry, Pennsylvania but the exact location has never been discovered.

- I. JOSEPH FETROW, JR. b. 5/11/1780 in Newberry township was married 3/26/1799 to Catharine Provant (or Provance) who was b. ca. 1776 in York County. Of their twelve children, their first, John Fetrow was born in 1800 and subsequently married Rebecca Plant after moving to West Virginia with his parents.

On 3/28/1801, Joseph and Catharine purchased from John and Sarah Baxter of Newberry township, 83 1/2 acres of land for the price of 250 pounds. Apparently Joseph and Catharine intended to farm the land which was located in Newberry township. Their second child, Catharine (Fetrow) Hurst was born there in October of 1801. She later married Shadrack Hurst after moving to West Virginia with her parents.

On 9/8/1803, Joseph Fetrow, Jr. sold his 83 1/2 acres of land in Newberry township to Andrew Furtenbaugh for 200 pounds, a loss of 50 pounds compared to the original purchase price. Joseph and Catharine packed up their belongings and their two children and left York County for good, moving to West Virginia where they settled in Augusta County. Augusta County is now known as Harrison County. The reason for their departure from York County is unknown.

In West Virginia, ten more children were born to Joseph and Catharine (Provant) Fetrow, Jr., of which Joseph Fetrow III was born in November/1804 in Salem, West Virginia. Their remaining nine children were Abraham Fetrow b. May/1806 who married Rachel White, Samuel Fetrow b. 1/31/1808 who married Cecelia Hardman and to Samuel bore thirteen children, (A) MARTIN FITTRO, Molly (Fetrow) Gain b. Sept/1811 who married Solomon Gain, Jacob Fetrow b. Sept/1813 who married Amy White, Madison Fetrow b. July/1815 who married Isabel Gain, Elizabeth (Fetrow) Hammond b. 5/3/1818, Sarah Fetrow b. Aug/1819 - d. March/1828 and Betsy (Fetrow) Seese whose birth is unknown.

Catharine (Provant) Fetrow died 1/1/1832 and is buried in Reynoldsville, West Virginia. The death of Joseph, Jr. is unknown.

- A. MARTIN FITTRO b. 9/26/1810 in Harrison County, West Virginia was married 2/13/1832 to Catharine Gain, the daughter of Jacob & Eva (Ash) Gain and probably a sister to the aforementioned Solomon and Isabel Gain. Martin and Catharine had nine children, namely: (1) SILAS FITTRO, Edward Fittro who married Miss Mines, Deckster Fittro who married Miss Plant, Luther Fittro who married Victoria Strother, Amanda (Fittro) Strother who married John Strother, Minerva (Fittro) Swiger who married Norval Swiger, Druzilla (Fittro) Ash who married Peter Ash, Samuel Fittro who married Alice Brooks and Elbridge Fittro b. 3/13/1850 - d. 5/16/1855. Martin Fittro departed this life 9/2/1887 and is buried in Reynoldsville, West Virginia.
1. SILAS FITTRO b. 1/1/1833 in Wilsonburg, West Virginia was married 9/17/1856 to Lydia James, the daughter of Hugh & Lydia (Johnston) James of Fayette County, Pennsylvania. Silas and Lydia resided in Salem, West Virginia and had ten children, namely:
 James Oliphant Fittro b. 7/8/1857 - d. 8/5/1932 who married Alice Cunningham on 12/12/1887, Almyra A. (Fittro) Pepper b. 3/4/1859 - d. 3/21/1920 who married Thomas B. Pepper, Carrie (Fittro) Morrison b. 2/19/1861 - d. 6/8/1939 who was married in 1879 to James Henry Morrison, Lydia Catherine (Fittro) Wilkinson b. May/1863 - d. March/1946 who was married 9/22/1885 to Daniel B. Wilkinson, Martin Luther Fittro b. 11/11/1865 - d. 8/12/1912 who married Mary Barger, Norval Bruce Fittro b. 11/13/1867 - d. 7/29/1949 who was married 7/2/1895 to Leta Gertrude Moote, Minnie Missoura (Fittro) King b. 9/22/1869 who was married in 1916 to John W. King and died 2/23/1965 at the age of 95 years, (a) JOHN STROTHER FITTRO, Mary Helen (Fittro) Morrison b. 11/22/1873 - d. 10/31/1953 who was married 9/6/1905 to Andrew H. Morrison and Fred G. Fittro b. 2/10/1878 - d. 5/14/1942 who married Matilda A. Husband. Lydia (James) Fittro passed away 8/11/1884, preceding Silas who succumbed on 8/18/1915. They are buried in Salem, West Virginia.

a. JOHN STROTHER FITTRO b. 9/27/1871 in Salem, West Virginia eighth born of Silas and Lydia was married 9/4/1919 in Union Co., New Mexico to Laura Lenorah Cozby. Miss Cozby was born 10/4/1900 in Comanche County, Texas, the daughter of Louis Albert & Jemimia Catherine (Brown) Cozby. Of their two children, their first born was Eula Lenore (Fittro) Baulo b. 5/30/1920 who was married 10/29/1938 to Anthony Francis Baulo. Their second born, a son, (1) John D. Fittro. John Strother Fittro passed away 1/19/1944 and was interred at Columbiana, Ohio.

(1). JOHN DANIEL FITTRO b. 12/31/1926 at Columbiana, Ohio was married 7/11/1944 to Bernice Eileen McGath who was born 3/30/1925. They reside in Granada Hills, California and have two daughters, namely: Virginia Kay and Sherry Eileen Fittro.

II. DAVID FETROW b. 1783 married Mary Yinger, possibly a sister to Nancy Yinger who married David's brother John. In "The Fishers of Fishing Creek Valley", Mary is listed as Polly Yinger. She was born ca. 1789 and in 1850 David and Mary were residing in Lower Allen township, Cumberland County, David listing his occupation as a laborer. "Fishing Creek Valley" lists nine children, namely: ABRAHAM FETROW who married Miss Stoner. I believe this Abraham Fetrow to be the same person listed in Chapter 10 of this book, JOHN FETROW who married Margaret Book, I believe this to be the John Y. Fetrow of Chapter 12 in this book, speculating that the Y. stands for Yinger, his mother's maiden name. If so Margaret Book would be a first wife, prior to his marriage to Annie Hess. (A) JACOB FETROW was the third born to this union, followed by (B) Yinger Fetrow. Fifth born of David and Mary was JOSEPH FETROW b. 9/22/1825 who married Mary Ann Stoner (see Chapter 13), David Fetrow b. ca. 1828, Nancy Fetrow of which nothing is known, Sarah Fetrow of which nothing is known and Martha Fetrow which may be the same Martha Fetrow that is buried in Oakland Cemetery in Princeton, Illinois who was born 5/31/1831 - d. 12/22/1900. If the same Martha, she possibly went west with her father and brother Joseph in 1860 and was never married. The census of 1850 in Lower Allen township, Cumberland County lists a daughter Magdalena Fetrow b. ca. 1831 living in the household of David and Mary. As Magdalena is not listed in the "Fishing Creek" book, she and Martha may be one and the same person, possibly being Martha Magdalena Fetrow as her full name. David Fetrow died in Princeton, Illinois on 10/5/1868 (C 11).

A. JACOB FETROW b. 1/10/1819 in York County, third born of David and Mary was married 1/12/1843 in Fairview township to Nancy Hoffstadt. Nancy was born 3/6/1824 in Fairview township, the daughter of Peter & Barbara (Jontz - ?) Hoffstadt. Jacob was a carpenter by trade and was residing in Fairview township, York County in 1850 with Nancy and their only child (1) CYRUS J. FETROW. The 1860 census of Bureau County, Illinois shows Jacob residing there with his wife and son, along with his brother Yinger and one Barbara Hoffstadt, probably Nancy's mother. It seems that these people moved to Illinois around 1852. Jacob's final destination was to be Chicago, but as it did not look promising, they headed south to Princeton, Illinois where they remained until after the Civil War. Around 1868, Jacob returned to Chicago where he established himself in the lumber and grain business. He also operated a tannery. Jacob was also a member of the Chicago Board of Trade until his retirement in 1885. Nancy (Hoffstadt) Fetrow passed away 6/17/1884, preceding Jacob who succumbed 1/19/1891. (C-11).

1. CYRUS JACOB FETROW b. 1848 in Fairview township, York Co., the only child of Jacob and Nancy married Susan E. Bouton who was born in 1850. Cyrus and Susan had one son, namely (a) Thomas C. Fetrow. Cyrus J. Fetrow died 3/30/1874, preceding Susan who succumbed in 1889 - (C-11).

a. THOMAS CHESTER FETROW b. 1873 in Illinois married Alta Kinkead who was also born in 1873. Tom and Alta had one daughter, namely: Katharine (Fetrow) Ames b. 1903 who married Harold T. Ames. Harold and Katharine had one son, namely: Harold Fetrow Ames b. 1929 d. 1962. Tom Chester Fetrow died 8/24/1950. His remains were cremated and interred at Oakland Cemetery from which they were removed 12/13/1960 and moved to Knoxville, Iowa where Alta would be buried after her death in 1961.

B. YINGER FETROW b. 9/19/1823 in York County, fourth born of David and Mary was residing with his brother Jacob in Princeton, Illinois in 1860. In 1864, Yinger married Roseanna Fetrow, widow of his cousin William (see Part III-A this chapter). Yinger and Roseanna had one known daughter, namely: Maude Lizzie Fetrow b. 1/11/1871 - d. 3/8/1872. Yinger Fetrow died 3/18/1872, ten days after his daughter - (C-11).

III. ABRAM or "Abraham" FETROW b. 12/26/1789 had a wife named Mary at the time of his death 3/28/1828 at the age of 38 years. After his death, Mary was made legal guardian of Abram's five children, indicating that she may have not been their natural mother. It is not known where Abram's family resided but he is buried in Fisher's Cemetery in Fairview township. The five children of Abram were all born after 1815. They are: Susanna (Fetrow) Kister, Andrew Fetrow who it appears went west with his brothers, William and Abraham, settling in Chicago, Illinois where he was unmarried and a member of the stock market in that city, Catharine Fetrow, third born of Abram of which nothing is known, (A) WILLIAM FETROW and ABRAHAM FETROW b. 5/27/1827 who married Elizabeth Shambaugh (see Chapter 14). Mary, the widow of Abram remarried to a man named Metz.

A. WILLIAM FETROW (birth unknown) was born "near Harrisburg". He was married in Pennsylvania to Roseanna _____ b. ca. 1827. William and Roseanna had two children in Pennsylvania, prior to their removal west to Illinois around 1850. The children born in Pennsylvania were (1) Abram Fetrow and Martha J. Fetrow b. ca. 1850 who died in childhood. After settling in Illinois, William and Roseanna had two more sons, namely: George Fetrow b. ca. 1853 and Frank Fetrow who was born ca. 1857. It appears that William Fetrow died before 1860 as he does not appear in the Illinois census of that year with his wife and children. His widow remarried in 1864 to the aforementioned Yinger Fetrow, cousin to William and son of David and Mary.

1. ABRAM or "Abraham" FETROW b. 9/27/1848 in Pennsylvania was married in Illinois to Barbara L. Stoner who was born 4/8/1847. In 1885, Abram went into business with a man named Van Pelzer and apparently resided in Mason County, Illinois. Abraham (as spelled on his tombstone) died 3/15/1905. Barbara (Stoner) Fetrow succumbed 3/18/1913. Any children to this marriage are unknown (C-11).

- IV. EMANUEL FETROW (birth unknown) married Eva Jane McGarey (or Megary). They lived in Lewisberry where Emanuel was a farmer by occupation. Emanuel and Jane had eight children, namely: William Fetrow who was unmarried and resided at Camp Hill, (A) Catharine (Fetrow) Grove, (B) Amanda (Fetrow) Whiter, (C) Adeline (Fetrow) Coble, (D) Eli Fetrow, (E) Delilah (Fetrow) Myers and Mary and Sarah Fetrow who both died young. It is possible that Emanuel and Jane may have moved to Cumberland County. According to "The Fishers of Fishing Creek Valley", they are buried at Lisburn, Pa.
- A. CATHARINE (Fetrow) GROVE (birth unknown) married Samuel Grove. They had six children, namely: Ella (Grove) Kline who married Allen Kline, Jane who never married, Samuel H. Grove, Jr. who married Emma Karns, Emma (Grove) Zeigler who married John Zeigler, Laurie Grove and Charles Grove who married Lettie Bates.
- B. AMANDA (Fetrow) WHITER (birth unknown) married Willis L. Whiter. They had four children, namely: Frank, Edith, William and Edward Whiter.
- C. ADELINE (Fetrow) COBLE (birth unknown) married Joseph Coble. They had five children, namely: Elizabeth (Coble) Goodyear who married William Goodyear, Joseph Coble, Jr., Emanuel Coble, Clara (Coble) Marshall and Lillie (Coble) Kellar, first married to Thomas Sparrow, then remarried to John Kellar.
- D. ELI FETROW (birth unknown) married Nancy Fisher Weitzel, daughter of John & Nancy (Fisher) Weitzel of Fishing Creek Valley. They resided in Steubenville, Ohio at the turn of the last century and had six children, namely: Ella (Fetrow) O'Neal who married Frank O'Neal, Oscar Fetrow, Mary (Fetrow) Shaw who married Harry R. Shaw, Charles Fetrow, William Fetrow and Mary E. Fetrow.
- E. DELILAH (Fetrow) MYERS (birth unknown) married John Myers. They had six children, namely: Edward, Minnie, Blanche, Ross, Lucy and Muff Myers.
- V. DANIEL FETROW b. 12/26/1798 tenth born of the children of Joseph & Catharine (Fischer) Fetrow married Sarah Grissinger who was born 9/27/1810. They resided originally in Newberry township and later moved to Fairview township. Daniel and Sarah had three children, namely: (A) Eve Fetrow, (B) ABEL FETROW, and (C) Mary Catharine (Fetrow) Pray. Sarah (Grissinger) Fetrow passed from this earth life on 2/25/1851 at the age of 40 years, followed by her husband, Daniel in December of that same year (C-21).
- A. EVE FETROW b. 3/24/1841 was residing with Abraham and Margaret (Stoner-?) Fetrow in 1860. It was probably here that she died 3/11/1863 at the age of 21 years. Her tombstone erroneously lists her as the daughter of David and Sarah - (C-06).

B. ABEL FETROW b. 1843 in Fairview township was residing with John Y. and Annie (Hess) Fetrow as a hired hand in 1862 when he enlisted at New Cumberland for service with the Pennsylvania Volunteers. He was enrolled in Company "H" 130th Regiment on August 6th. Shortly after his enrollment, Abel began to suffer from chronic diarrhoea which caused him to be discharged on a medical certificate on 2/10/1863.

After recuperating from his disorder, Abel re-enlisted on 6/21/1863 with Company "F" 20th Regiment, P. V. C. (Pennsylvania Volunteers Cavalry). He held the rank of private as in his previous enlistment, and was honorably discharged 3/24/1864. On December 1st of that year, Abel was united in holy matrimony to Mary Jane Pennybaker who was also born in 1843. They were married in York County and were residing in Fairview township where Abel was a Farmer in the census of 1880. Prior to their removal to Iowa, Abel and Mary Jane had four children, namely: Harry Fetrow b. 1866, Ida M. Fetrow b. 1872, Charles F. Fetrow b. 1876 and Jennie Fetrow who was born in 1878. Abel Fetrow succumbed in Wellman, Iowa on 3/24/1902, after which his widow returned to the area of Shiremanstown in Cumberland County where she resided until her death 10/14/1915.

C. MARY CATHARINE (Fetrow) PRAY b. 1845 in Fairview township was married 1/10/1867 in West Fairview township to William C. Pray. William was born at New Market, Penna. on 5/1/1841. Prior to his marriage to Mary Catharine Fetrow, William saw service as a private with Company "H" 130th Regiment P. V. I. serving during the Civil War from 8/9/1862 until his honorable discharge at Harrisburg on 5/21/1863. It seems he may have joined up with Abel Fetrow on his first enlistment. William was a butcher by profession and he and Mary Catharine lived at his father's house for two years, prior to their setting up their own home at New Market, Penna. They resided there for thirteen years, moving to Philadelphia, Penna. around 1883. William C. Pray spent his last years at the Pennsylvania Soldiers Home in Erie, Penna. He died there 8/31/1911 at the age of 70 years. Mary had no assets to maintain her existence and was given a home to spend the last years of her life with her daughter, Nellie and her husband. Mary C. (Fetrow) Pray passed away 4/22/1924 and was buried in Philadelphia. While residing at New Market, Penna. the Prays had three children, namely: William L. Pray b. March/1870, Joseph C. Pray b. Sept/1881 and Nellie M. (Pray) Levering who was born in May of 1883.

VI. CATHARINE (Fetrow) STEEL b. ca. 1799, eleventh born of Joseph and Catharine was married in 1815 to John Steel who was born in 1793. Prior to his marriage, John Steel was drafted by the Pennsylvania Militia on 2/26/1814 from his residence in Fairview township. He served in the company under the command of Colonel James Fenton, serving for six months, being honorably discharged 6/26/1814 at Camp Buffalo, N. Y.

To give an idea of what service in the Penna. Militia was like in 1814 (pay wise anyway), John Steel was paid from 2/26/1814 to 6/15/1814 at the rate of $10. per month, his amount of pay being $36.07. This was corporal's pay but apparently something happened and from 6/15/1814 to 8/24/1814 he is listed as a private and received as pay $8. per month for a total of $18.13. At the time of his discharge at Camp Buffalo, New York, he received for expenses to return to his home in Fairview township, the distance of which was 363 miles, a total of 25¢ per-day traveling expenses as it would take him eighteen days traveling time to get home. He also received for purchase of food on his journey, an extra $3.06. For his six months service to his country, John Steel received a total of $61.76.

On 10/1/1814, the "War of 1812" with Great Britain was still drawing men into the service of their country. Abraham Fetrow (see Part III this Chapter) was drafted at this time to serve for three months. In his place, John Steel volunteered to march as substitute. This time he served as a private in the company under the command of Capt. John Beachler, the company being part of the regiment under the command of Colonel Lefever. John Steel did not serve the full three months enlistment and was discharged on 12/5/1814 from Camp Springfield at Baltimore, Maryland.

After John's marriage to Catharine Fetrow, he continued to reside in Fairview township. It was here that they raised their family of ten children, namely: John Steel, Jr. who married Jane Marsh, Joseph Steel who married Elizabeth Snyder, Esther (Steel) Heck who married William Heck, Eliza (Steel) Drawbaugh who married David Drawbaugh, Susan (Steel) Wilbert who married Harry Wilbert, Catharine (Steel) Gutschall who married Albach Gutschall, Lydia (Steel) Holland who married Cisero M. Holland and resided in Missouri, Sarah (Steel) Lingle who married Joseph Lingle, Abraham Steel who married Catharine James and resided in Oregon, and Theodore Steel who married Belle Porter and resided in Kansas.

On 11/1/1851, John Steel while still residing in Fairview township applied for a Bounty Land Warrant for 80 acres #37.542 which he legally turned over to S. N. Bailey of Dillsburg, Penna. Sometime between this application for Bounty Land and another which he applied for 6/8/1855, John Steel (and presumably his wife Catharine) moved to Iowa City, Iowa where they resided in Johnson County. The bounty land application he received #36.828 also for 80-acres was turned over to George S. Hampton of Johnson County, Iowa.

I presume that John & Catharine Steel resided in Iowa until their deaths and are buried there.

FOUR

JOHANNES "John" FETROW, last born of the sons of Philip & Anna Mary Fedrow was born in Newberry township ca. 1763. He served in the York County Militia of the Continental Army during the Revolutionary War.

Johannes married Elizabeth Coble, the daughter of Christopher and Margaret Coble of Newberry township. They resided in Newberry township, a section which later became Conewago township in 1819.

Johannes and Elizabeth raised a family of twelve children, namely: (I) Catharine (Fetrow) Shettron, Philip Fetrow b. 1/22/1783 of which nothing is known, Anna Mary (Fetrow) Richcreek b. 4/2/1785 who married Philip Richcreek, (II) Eva (Fetrow) Grissinger, Elizabeth (Fetrow) Sipe b. July/1789 who married Charles Sipe, Anna Margaret (Fetrow) Stoner b. 5/13/1791 who married Frederick Stoner (F. Stoner deceased prior to 1828), Jacob Fetrow b. 7/25/1793 who is probably the same Jacob Fetrow listed in the appendix of this book, (III) Barbara (Fetrow) Fink, Israel Fetrow b. 12/29/1802 and baptised at Christ Lutheran Church in York (the only baptism recorded at this church for John and Elizabeth), (IV) Mary Magdalena (Fetrow) Hoffman, John Fetrow b. ca. 1807 and (V) MARTIN FETROW. Johannes "John" Fetrow died in December/1819.

- I. CATHARINE (Fetrow) SHETTRON b. 10/20/1781 was baptised at Quickels on 11/30/1781, the sponser to the christening being Philip & Catharine (Hummel) Fetrow, her aunt and uncle. Catharine married Henry Shettron who was born and baptised in 1771 at Strayer's Church in Dover township. Henry was the son of Casper and Eva Elisabetha Schettron. Henry and Catharine had four children, namely: Eve (Shettron) Walter who married William Walter, Philip Shettron, Jacob Shettron b. 1/10/1819 and Elizabeth Shettron.
- II. EVA (Fetrow) GRISSINGER b. 4/15/1787 and baptised that same year at Quickels, the sponser being Eva Coble, sister to Elizabeth. Eva Fetrow married Adam Grissinger, a farmer by occupation at Lewisberry, Penna. Adam and Eva had eight children, namely: Barbara (Grissinger) Rhinehart who married Charles Rhinehart, Catharine (Grissinger) Vauer who married a Reverend Vauer of Evansville, Indiana, Rebecca (Grissinger) Gladfelter who married Samuel Gladfelter of Fulton County, Penna., Martha Grissinger who died young, John F. Grissinger who married Margaret McNeal, Martin F. Grissinger who married Julia Ann Parks, Andrew G. Grissinger who married Rebecca Slates and Daniel Levi Grissinger who married Isabella Foust. Adam succumbed at the age of 56 years, after which Eva moved to Fulton Co. where she resided with her daughter, Rebecca until her death in 1879.
- III. BARBARA (Fetrow) FINK b. 9/1/1796 in Newberry township (later Conewago. Barbara married John Peter Fink who was born 7/1/1791 in Newberry township, the son of Johannes & Margaretha Fink. The sponser to Peter's christening was Martin Shetter. He was christened at Quickels. Peter and Barbara resided in Conewago township where he pursued his occupation at a weaver of cloth. Prior to his marriage, Peter Fink served his country in the War of 1812. The births of nine children are recorded at Quickels to Peter and Barbara, namely: Elisabeth b. 9/11/1815, Sara b. 1/19/1817, Kasse b. 7/5/1818, Margaret b. 9/12/1819, Leah b. 8/2/1821, Sophia b. 1/12/1823, Peter b. 6/23/1827, Lucian b. 5/3/1834 and Johannes b. 4/3/1837. Peter Fink died 4/1/1860 at the age of 68 years, 9 months - (C-15). Barbara apparently changed her residence after the death of her husband. She passed away 8/18/1875 - (C-12).
- IV. MARY MAGDALENA (Fetrow) HOFFMAN b. 3/7/1805 was first married to John Martin. Presumably he died as Magdalena remarried to Michael Hoffman. According to the register at Quickels, Michael was born 8/5/1803, the son of Philip & Sabina Hoffman. The sponser to his baptism was Henry Hoffman. The tombstone at Paddleton Cemetery gives the birth of Michael Hoffman as 8/15/1803. One known son to this marriage is buried with them, namely: Philip Hoffman b. 4/17/1825 - d. 12/14/1848. Michael died 1/21/1867. Magdalena followed on 3/2/1868 - (C-12).

V. MARTIN FETROW b. ca. 1810 was the only child of John and Elizabeth under the age of 21-years in 1828 when a petition was filed regarding his father's estate, as John Fetrow died intestate, leaving a wife and eleven children, naming all of the aforementioned children of John and Elizabeth, except Catharine Shettron who was deceased prior to the filing of the petition on 9/9/1828. Son Philip and son-in-law Adam Gris-singer were the filers of this petition which was to grant them an order to sell two tracts of land in Conewago township. This was to acquire funds to cover the debts of the deceased which totaled $586.78 and to educate the minor children of which Martin was the only one. The 1st tract of land contained 112 acres 130 perches and was sold 11/4/1828 to John Lauchman for $508.92. The remaining tract of land of 155 acres was not sold until 2/19/1833. It was purchased by Jacob Bear for $513.05.

Martin Fetrow married Elizabeth Kauffman who was born ca 1815. They resided at Slate Hill, Cumberland County and had at least five children, namely: (A) AMOS EDWARD FETROW, Elizabeth Fetrow b. ca. 1844, John Fetrow b. ca. 1851, Lydia Fetrow b. ca. 1856 and (B) Daniel Fetrow. The deaths and burial of Martin and Elizabeth are unknown.

John Philip Fetrow

FIVE

JOHN PHILIP FETROW was born October 17, 1776 in Newberry township, first-born of the children of Philip & Catharine (Hummel) Fetrow. J. Philip was married May 20, 1800 to Maria Elizabeth Boyer who was born December 18, 1779, one of the eleven children of George Albright & Elizabeth (Hinckel) Boyer - (see PROLOGUE - Part II).

Hope chest built for Elizabeth Boyer in 1795. Repainted in 1888 by Samuel H. Fetrow. This Fetrow family heirloom is currently in the possession of Edward S. Fetrow of Mechanicsburg, great-great grandson of Philip & Elizabeth (Boyer) Fetrow.

Elizabeth bore to Philip, three sons and five daughters, namely: (I) Samuel B. Fetrow, (II) DAVID P. FETROW, Mary (Fetrow) Markley b. 10/25/1804 who married Martin Markley, a distiller in Fairview township, (III) Nancy Ann (Fetrow) Jobe, Sarah Fetrow b. 11/14/1808 who never married and died in February of 1890 at the poorhouse in Harrisburg, Susanna (Fetrow) Gushart b. 10/5/1811 who married Isaac Gushart, (IV) Elizabeth (Fetrow) Herring and the last born, a son who died at birth on February 18, 1819.

Philip was a yeoman (a term, now obsolete for a small time farmer who worked his own land) and in 1812, he was requested to join the service of his country to participate in the present war being waged with Great Britain. However a substitute, one Joseph McAfee - for financial consideration - marched in his place as Philip already had six children to provide for.

Elizabeth (Boyer) Fetrow passed from her earth life on May 17, 1823 at the age of 43-years, 4 months and 29 days. Her burial place is unknown.

It was on March 31, 1830 at the age of 53 years that Philip remarried to Rhoda Thornburg who was born March 14, 1793 and sixteen years younger than Philip. Rhoda bore to her husband four daughters, namely: (V) Leah (Fetrow) Gross, Lydia A Fetrow b. 12/23/1830, twin sister to Leah who resided at Newberrytown, never married and died September 19, 1919 -(C-13), Rachel Fetrow b. 5/29/1832 - d. 9/27/1842 at the age of 10 years and (VI) Jane (Fetrow) Delling-er.

Philip operated a saw-mill in the Bald Hills of Newberry township, and it was here in 1839 (?) that he built a house of red sandstone. The house still stands today and it is located on the original land grant received by John Philip Fedrow in 1760 where Bennet Run enters the Conewago Creek at the Sheeps Bridge.

It was here that Philip died on June 11, 1868 at the ripe-old age of 91 years, 7 months and 24 days. His widow, Rhoda passed on March 26, 1874 at the age of 81 years, 12 days - (C-13).

Tombstones at Parkville Cemetery in Newberry twp. (L-R) Rhoda Fetrow, Philip Fetrow, Rachel Dellinger, Samuel & Jane Dellinger.

- I. SAMUEL B. FETROW b. 3/1/1801 according to his father's journal, the eldest son of Philip and Elizabeth. He was never married and was noted in his lifetime for his many eccentricities. Wherever Sam went he carried an umbrella which he used as a cane. He often attracted attention by attending public sales wearing an overcoat made of variegated colors of calico. Sam was also known for his many vaguries and odd notions, the likes of which endeared him to his friends and acquaintances.

Of his personal habits, Sam was abstentious, refraining from the pleasures of rich foods and strong drink, preferring the simplicity of a vegetarian diet much of which he probably grew himself. He drank no coffee or teas but preferred as a beverage, a glass of plain hot water. Sam never attended church or any form of religious services but was well-read in the scriptures from which he oft' quoted in his conversations. He knew much of the New Testament by heart and was able to recite completely Jesus' "Sermon on the Mount".

The occupations of Samuel B. Fetrow were many. He read many medical books and became a self-styled doctor of sorts, even occasionally performing minor surgery. With his doctoring he also sold patent medicines and potions which he prepared himself. Sam was also a counsellor-at-law and was known for his shrewdness in interpreting the laws of the land. Among his other notable professions were those of surveyor and scrivener. He was also known to assist in butcherin' and fence-makin'.

The census of 1850 lists Sam as residing in the household of Jonas Boyer in Newberry township. Jonas was the father of Mary Matilda Boyer who married John Hughes, of which their daughter, Lizzie A. married Edward Fetrow (see Chapter 26).

At the time of his death in 1865, Sam Fetrow left a small estate. A monument to his existence stands in the cemetery adjoining Rohler's Church in Dover. It is a marble pyramid, badly weathered on which can still be seen numerous inscriptions from the Bible, including the Proverbs of Solomon.

- II. DAVID P. FETROW b. 11/10/1802, second son of Philip and Elizabeth was married 2/9/1822 to Barbara Shetter who was born 12/4/1806. Barbara bore to David, eight children, namely: WILLIAM S. FETROW b. 10/8/1832 who married Sarah Z. Gouth (see Chapter 16), Mary Ann Fetrow b. 12/6/1833 who died young, FRANKLIN S. FETROW b. 2/25/1835 who married Susan Sheely (see Chapter 18), Samuel Fetrow b. 11/5/1836 who died young, (A) Henry S. Fetrow, (B) John Rankin Fetrow, (C) Sarah Jane (Fetrow) Fetrow and (D) Miller Fetrow.

David P. Fetrow was a farmer, residing near York Haven in Newberry township. His wife, Barbara departed this life on 3/3/1875 and subsequently buried at Parkville Cemetery. Following her death, David went to Alrado, Kansas to live with one of his sons. He died there 3/13/1891 at the age of 88 years, 4 months and 3 days and is buried in that town.

- A. HENRY S. FETROW b. 9/23/1838 served in the Civil War but no records were available from the General Services Administration in Washington, D. C. on his service. He is listed from one source (Prowell's History of York County) as having been killed at the battle of Antietam which was fought in 1862. Another source says he was killed 6/12/1864.
- B. JOHN RANKIN FETROW b. 12/6/1839 in York County, Newberry township, enlisted 8/4/1862 at Harrisburg as a private in Company "K" 130th Regiment P. V. I. and served until 5/24/1863 during the Civil War. In 1873, John R. Fetrow with his brothers William S. and Miller, moved to Kansas, residing in Butler County. It was here that on 12/30/1875 John married at the age of 36 years to 15 year old Ida Amanda Martinsen, an immigrant from Klevas, Sweden who was born 11/26/1860. Ida bore to John, three children, namely: Mabel Anna Fetrow b. 10/4/1884, Frank Elmo Fetrow b. 11/15/1886 and Harry Morten Fetrow b. 9/12/1888.

John R. Fetrow owned and operated a sorghum mill in Leon, Kansas. He succumbed 8/30/1908 in Wichata, Kansas and was buried at Leon. After his death, Ida remarried 9/3/1911 to Eli W. Wilhite, remaining married to him until his death 3/19/1928. That same year, Ida married to M. R. Diver on December 20th. He succumbed less than two months later of pneumonia on 2/16/1929. Ida passed away around 1940.

- C. SARAH JANE (Fetrow) FETROW b. 3/8/1842 was first married to a Mr. Strominger. She later married George N. Fetrow, the son of Daniel & Sarah (Nighclough-?) Fetrow. They were residing in Fairview township in the census of 1880, later moving to Kansas and finally to California. George and Sarah Jane had two daughters, namely: Emma (or Etta) S. Fetrow b. 1873 who moved to California and Alice S. (Fetrow) Kistler b. 1875 who married Frank Kistler and died in 1940. Sarah J. Fetrow died in California in October of 1926.

- D. MILLER FETROW b. 7/15/1843 in Newberry township, York County, last-born of David P. & Barbara Fetrow was married in Kansas and had two daughters, the names of all being unknown. One daughter married J. T. Baldwin and resided in El Dorado, Kansas. The other daughter married Carson Pierce and resided in Montana. Miller Fetrow died 6/9/1918 in Winfield, Kansas.
- III. NANCY ANN (Fetrow) JOBE b. 4/24/1807 according to her father's journal. A discrepancy exists as her tombstone lists her birth as 4/7/1807. Ann married Jacob W. Jobe who was born 12/14/1799. They resided in Adams County, Pennsylvania. One known daughter was born to this union, namely: Marian Elizabeth Jobe b. 11/13/1834. Jacob Jobe died 6/13/1875. Ann succumbed to consumption at the age of 80-years on 10/24/1887. They are buried at Upper Bermudian Cemetery in Huntington township - Adams County.
- IV. ELIZABETH (Fetrow) HERRING b. 10/9/1814, last-born of the surviving children of Philip and Elizabeth was first married to James Webb. It is unknown as to whether this was the same James Webb who owned and operated a ferry near the area of Harrisburg on the Susquehanna River. After the death of Webb, Elizabeth remarried to Daniel Oxman. Her father's journal indicates that she was married a third time to a man named Herring as that was her legal surname at the time of her death in 1889.
- V. LEAH (Fetrow) GROSS b. 12/23/1830 in Fairview township, one of twin daughters born to Philip and his second wife, Rhoda. Leah was married 4/17/1853 at Christ Lutheran Church by the Rev. Augustus H. Lochman. Her husband, George Gross was born 12/22/1827, the son of David & Catharine Gross. George enlisted in Company "C" 200th Regiment - P. V. I. at Harrisburg on 8/24/1864 and served a tour of duty until his honorable discharge at Alexandria, Virginia in May/1865.
One known son, namely: Aaron A. Gross was born to this union on 4/7/1870. Any other children are unknown. George Gross succumbed to typhoid fever on 7/1/1874 at the age of 46-years. - (C-15).
Leah was residing in Newberrytown prior to the turn of the last century, sometime after which she moved to Dillsburg. Leah departed this life on 3/26/1918. Burial place unknown.
- VI. JANE (Fetrow) DELLINGER b. 3/7/1835, last-born of Philip and Rhoda was married in November/1852 to Samuel Dellinger who was born 10/2/1832. Sam and Jane resided at the Bald Hills homestead where Jane took on the job of family historian in later years. Sam and Jane had two daughters, namely: Rachel Matilda Dellinger b. 12/22/1857 - d. 5/31/1864 and (A) Emma E. (Dellinger) Worley. Jane (Fetrow) Dellinger passed away at the old homestead on 5/11/1911 at the age of 76 years. Samuel Dellinger succumbed 12/11/1913 at the age of 81 years - (C-13).
- A. Emma E. (Dellinger) Worley b. 7/9/1867 in Newberry township was married 12/11/1890 to Emmet Worley who was born 9/4/1869, the son of George and Eliza Worley. Emmet & Emma had four children, namely (1) Bessie (Worley) Himes, Oscar Worley b. 5/17/1901 (deceased), Florence "Flossie" J. (Worley) Fetrow b. 12/31/1903 who married Harvey H. Fetrow (see Chapter 16 - Part I D) and (B) Anna M. (Worley) Beard. Emma Worley passed away 1/7/1937, preceding Emmet who succumbed 3/25/1945 - (C-12).

1. Bessie J. (Worley) Himes b. 3/11/1895 in Newberry township was married 2/5/1915 to Harry Joseph Himes. They had three children, namely: Russell E. Himes b. 8/10/1913, Preston Henry Himes b. 5/15/1916 who married Ruth C. Krout and resides at the old homestead of Philip Fetrow in the Bald Hills, and Delma E. Himes who was born 5/3/1919.

On September 13, 1925, while boating on the Susquehanna River, near their home at Cly, Penna. , the Himes family was caught on the river as a thunderstorm came up suddenly. A bolt of lightning struck the boat, resulting in the deaths of Bessie, Russell and Delma. Preston who was nine years old at the time survived as did his father. Harry J. Himes passed away less than two years later on 8/19/1927 at the age of 40-years.

2. Anna Marie (Worley) Beard b. 4/6/1905 in Newberry township was married March/1923 in Lewisberry to Charles Wayne Beard. Charles was born 12/8/1902 in Newberry township, the son of Wesley A. & Annie (Schubauer) Beard. They had five children, namely: Irene Emma (Beard) Myers b. 9/27/1924 who is divorced from Lester Myers, Vincent Harrison Beard b. 11/20/1925 who married Esther Updegraph, Junior Emmet Beard b. 11/20/1926 who married Grace Warrick, David Phillip Beard b. 11/25/1927 who married Elma Walters and Grace Arlene (Beard) Fink b. 7/5/1931 who married Barnard Fink. Mathias Fetrow

Seven

MATHIAS FETROW was born October 20, 1787 in Newberry township, sixth-born of the children of Philip & Catharine (Hummel) Fetrow. Mathias was married in September of 1811 to Catharine Sipe (or Seip) who was born December 20, 1784, the daughter of Emanuel & Dorothea Sipe. Prior to her death around 1820, Catharine bore to Mathias seven children, namely: ABRAHAM FETROW b. Feb/1811 who married Susanna Billet (see Chapter 9), Elizabeth (Fetrow) Conaway b. 8/6/1812 who was married 4/8/1838 to William Conaway and resided in York township, Lydia (Fetrow) Miller b. 8/9/1814 who was married 12/19/1841 to Henry Miller and resided in the Borough of York, (I) PHILIP FETROW, Catharine (Fetrow) Billet b. 10/14/1817 - d. 5/12/1859 - (C-15) who was married 7/29/1841 to Eli Billet, Martha Magdalena (Fetrow) Walker b. 7/10/1818 who married John Walker and resided in Conewago township and (II) JOSHUA FETROW.

Following the death of Catharine, Mathias remarried to Margaret . To Mathias, who resided in Conewago township, Margaret bore five children, namely: Leah (Fetrow) Carr b. 4/5/1824 who became the wife of Darby Carr and resided in Conewago township, (III) LEVI FETTROW, Levinia (or Lovina) Fetrow b. ca. 1833 who was married and resided in Harrisburg, Mary (Fetrow) Werner b. ca. 1836 who married Thomas Werner and Sarah Ann (Fetrow) Koch b. 8/25/1840, last-born of the children of Mathias who was married 5/4/1858 to George W. While in the service of his country, during the Civil War, John was wounded 5/6/1864 at the battle of Wilderness, Virginia, afterwhich he had a stay in the hospital. John Fetrow deserted from the army on 7/30/1864 and was apprehended on 11/4/1864. He was tried, found guilty of desertion and sentenced to be returned, under guard to his regiment which was then located in the vicinity of Alexandria, Virginia. He was ordered to make up all lost time with all loss of pay and allowances.

John Fetrow served the rest of his enlistment, without any further attempts at desertion. He was honorably discharged 5/15/1867 at Fort Snelling, Minnesota afterwhich he returned to the area of Strinestown, Penna. On May 16, 1869, John was united in holy matrimony by Henry Bear, Justice of the Peace to Margaret Anderson. Details on Margaret Anderson are lacking as she died 3/16/1870, probably in childbirth. She died ten months to the day after her marriage. After the death of his wife, John went to work as a laborer for Peter and Elizabeth Gross of Strinestown. In 1915, he was residing in Fairview township and was working for the state of Pennsylvania as a road boss. John never remarried and died in poverty at Lisburn, Pennsylvania on 7/28/1932 - (C-02).

B. GEORGE S. FETROW b. Nov/1853 in Conewago township was married ca. 1885 to Alice who was born in Jan/1862. II. JOSHUA FETROW b. 6/6/1819 according to the age listed on his tombstone. This date conflicts with the actual recorded birthdate of his sister Magdalena which was recorded as 7/10/1819 to which I changed to 7/10/1818. Joshua may have actually been born in 1818. All listings for the children of Mathias, list Magdalena before Joshua, indicating that she was older than he.

Joshua was married 7/4/1845 to Cassandra "Cassy" Keener who was born 9/17/1819. They resided in Manchester township, where Joshua was a laborer. Cassy bore to Joshua three children, namely: George Fetrow b. 12/19/1845 who moved to Philadelphia, married and had a son (name unknown), (A) Mary Jane (Fetrow) Hoffman and ADAM FETROW b. 2/10/1851 who married Isabella Day (see Chapter 25).

Cassy (Keener) Fetrow passed away 3/30/1897 at the age of 77 years, preceding Joshua who succumbed 10/4/1903 at the home of his son, Adam. On Cassy's tombstone, her name is listed as Catherine - (C-15).

A. MARY JANE (Fetrow) HOFFMAN b. 12/19/1845, the twin sister to George, was baptised with her brother at Quickel's Church on 4/25/1846. Prior to her marriage, Mary Jane bore a daughter out of wedlock, namely: (1) Ellen (Fetrow-Sipe) Frantz. Mary Jane married John Hoffman. They resided on the east bank of the Susquehanna River at Falmouth, Pennsylvania, and had one son, namely: Adam Hoffman. The death of Mary Jane is unknown.

1. ELLEN (Fetrow-Sipe) FRANTZ b. 6/15/1869, the illegitimate daughter of Mary Jane Fetrow married Augustus Frantz and bore to him five children, namely: Harvey Lester Frantz who married Bessie Nace, Ray Augustus Frantz who married Esther Gerhart, Earl Wilbur Frantz b. 1898 who was married 1/1/1924 to Mary Elizabeth Baldwin, Ira Stuart Frantz who first married Helen Straley from whom he was divorced and remarried to Hazel Kratz and Carrie R. (Frantz) Good who was married at Mt. Wolf on 6/5/1926 to Franklin D. Good. Ellen Frantz succumbed in Feb/1963 at the age of 95 years.

III. LEVI FETTROW b. 8/10/1828 according to the Register of Christ Lutheran Church where he was christened on November 20th of that year. The age listed on his tombstone would make his birth 6/15/1829. Levi married Mary Ann Shat who was born 12/16/1833. Mary Ann bore to Levi, five children, namely: William Henry Fetrow b. 8/8/1854 - d. 10/2/1862 - (C-15), Levi Fettrow, Jr. b. 7/16/1856 - d. 10/16/1862 - (C-15), (A) GEORGE W. Abraham Fetrow

NINE

ABRAHAM FETROW was born in February/1811, the eldest of the children of Mathias & Catharine (Sipe) Fetrow. The exact day of birth presents a conflict. He is listed in the baptismal of the First Moravian Congregation of York as being born February 3, 1811 and baptised on April 15th of that same year. In the register of Quickel's Church he is again listed but with a birth date of February 10, 1811. The Quickel's register lists no baptism date but he is listed with three of his sisters and a brother, all of which list birthdates but no baptismal dates. To further complicate matters, his tombstone lists his age at death as 64 years, 4 months and 26 days giving the indication that he was born September 14, 1808. It may sound as if they are not the same Abraham Fetrow, but they are and I believe the Moravian Record is correct.

Abraham was united in holy matrimony on June 16, 1839 by the Rev. Augustus H. Lochman to Susanna Billet who was born 11/18/1821 (according to the age on her tombstone), the daughter of Michael & Sarah (Sipe) Billet.

Abraham and Susanna resided in Dover where he pursued his occupation as a cooper (barrel maker). It was in Dover that Abraham and his wife raised their family of ten children, namely: (I) Sarah (Fetrow) Coble, EMANUEL FETROW b. 1/20/1841 who married Catherine Stouch (see Chapter 21), (II) Anna Mary (Fetrow) Bowman, (III) Elizabeth (Fetrow) Shaffner, (IV) Elias "Eli" Fetrow, (V) JACOB FETROW, (VI) Catharine (Fetrow) Beck, Samuel Fetrow b. April/1856 - d 3/30/1872, Abraham "Abe" Fetrow b. May/1858 who never married and (VII) MICHAEL B. FETROW.

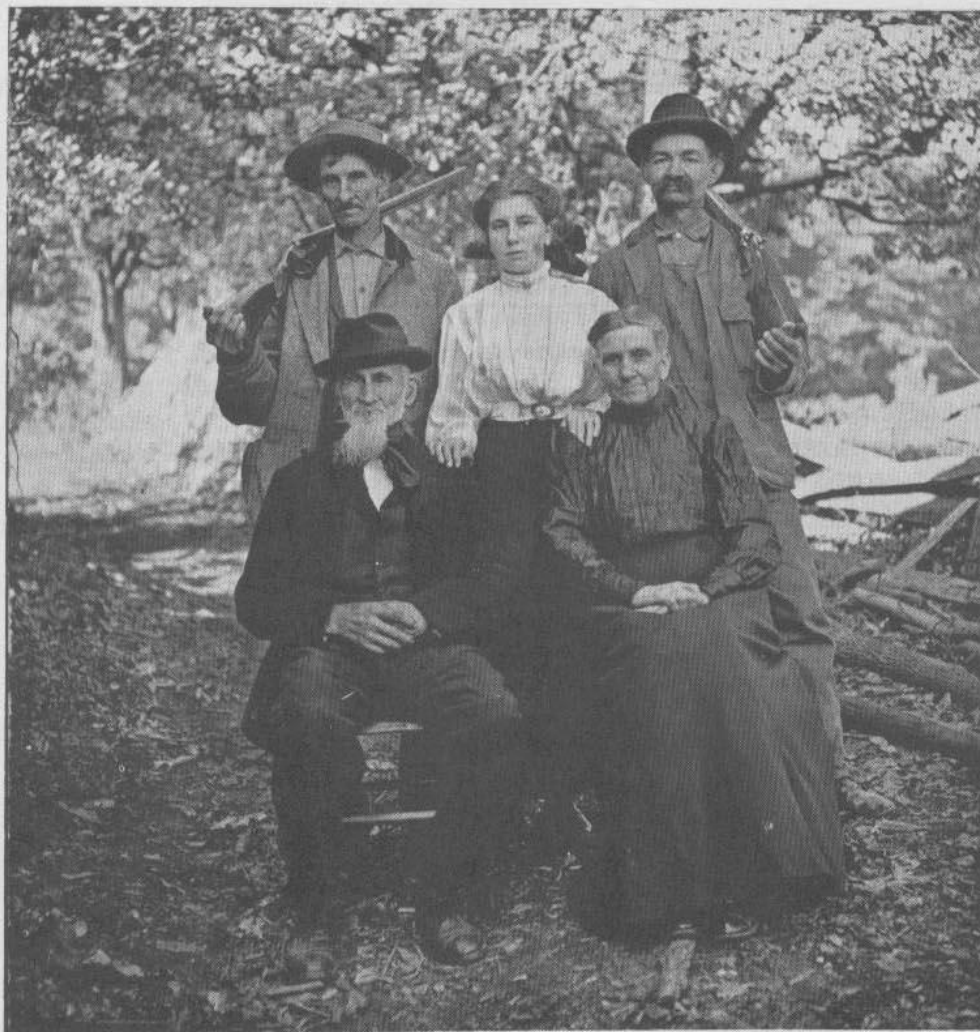

Abraham, the elder departed this life on February 10, 1873, preceding Susanna who departed her earth life on April 5, 1893 at the age of 71 years - (C-18).

- I. SARAH (Fetrow) COBLE b. 1/21/1840. The information on this Sarah Fetrow indicates that she was twice married, the name of one of her husbands being Coble, by whom she had a son, namely: Henry Coble. Nothing else is known of Sarah.
- II. ANNA MARY (Fetrow) BOWMAN b. ca. 1845 married Charles Bowman. Anna Mary was apparently married twice, as to whether Bowman was her first or second husband is unknown. The census for Dover in the year 1870 lists an Ann M. Myers residing with Abraham and Susanna. I assume they are one and the same. Also listed were two children, namely: Eli Myers (age 2 years) and Cassy Myers (age 3 months).

III. ELIZABETH "Lizzie" (Fetrow) SHAFFNER b. Jan/1847 was married on 8/31/1865 to Peter A. Shaffner. Pete was a farmer in Dover, who was born 3/2/1837, the son of Peter & Anna Shaffner. He served during the Civil War enlisting 2/5/1864 at Harrisburg and assigned to Company "B" 10th Regiment P. V. I. His personal description at the time of his enlistment was 5'7" tall with fair complexion, blue eyes and brown hair.

While Company "B" was engaged in the Wilderness Campaign in Virginia in the early summer of 1864, Peter Shaffner received a minnie ball wound in the scalp, after which he spent a short time in the hospital. He deserted from his company on 11/22/1865, months after the War-Between-the-States had ended, surrendering himself on 3/20/1867. He served the rest of his enlistment, finally being discharged 5/26/1868 at Fort Snelling, Minnesota, after which he returned to Dover, his family and his occupation as farmer.

Peter and Lizzie had thirteen children of which seven died young, namely: Amanda "Mandy", Ellie, William, Peter W., Ida May, Mary and Sarah Shaffner. Five of the six surviving children are known, namely: (A) Abraham Shaffner, Allen E. Shaffner b. 5/28/1869, Jacob L. Shaffner b. 2/6/1872, Emma L. (Shaffner) Hollerbush b. 4/3/1883 who married Lloyd Hollerbush, a brother to Edward Hollerbush who married Mary Jane Fetrow (see Chapter 24) and William Hollerbush who married Myrtle Beck, the daughter of Penrose & Minnie (Fetrow) Beck (see Chapter 24). The last of the known children of Pete & Lizzie was Levi C. Shaffner who was born 3/14/1888 Lizzie (Fetrow) Shaffner passed away 3/26/1907. Peter A. Shaffner succumbed on 7/20/1913 at the age of 76 years - (C-18).

ABRAHAM FETROW

TEN

This ABRAHAM FETROW b. ca. 1810 residing in Fairview township as a farmer with his wife Margaret b. ca. 1821 is taken from the York County Census figures of 1850-60-70. Abraham is a great-grandson of Philip Fedrow, but the connection is a speculation. As it stands, I believe he is the Abraham listed in Chapter 3 of this book, the eldest son of David & Mary (Yinger) Fetrow. The census of 1850 spells the name Fetrow while the census of 1870 gives the spelling F-e-t-r-o. Again one can only speculate as to how the name was actually spelled, since the descendants of Abraham's son, Eli spell their surname, F-e-t-t-r-o, while the descendants of Harry G. and John J. spell the surname, F-e-t-r-o-w.

In the census of 1860, there is a listing for a David Fetrow (infirm), age 75 years residing with Abraham and Margaret. This would have to be David Fetrow, son of Joseph as opposed to David Fetrow son of Philip, as the latter died in 1853.

The Abraham Fetrow of Chapter 3 is listed as having married a Miss Stoner according to the "Fishers of Fishing Creek Valley". This would make the given name of Abraham's wife, Margaret Stoner.

The children of Abraham and Margaret number eight, namely: Sarah "Sallie" Fetrow b. ca. 1845, David Fetrow b. ca. 1847, ELI FETTRO b. 10/30/1850 who married Agnes Kauffman (see Chapter 23), (I) HARRY G. FETROW, a daughter listed in one census as Hester and in another as Anna Fetrow b. ca. 1858, (II) JOHN JACOB FETROW, George Fetrow b. ca. 1865 and Thomas Fetrow b. ca. 1868.

Another clue which points toward the fact that Abraham is descended from David is that Abraham named his first son DAVID, a common practice years ago of which was to name the first-born son after the paternal grandfather. As can be seen in the following genealogy of Harry G. Fetrow, he named his first son, ABRAHAM, after his father.

One more clue which points toward the Joseph Fetrow branch of the family is that in the census of 1860, Eve Fetrow, daughter of Daniel & Sarah (Grissinger) Fetrow (deceased) - (see Chapter 3, Part V), was residing in the household of Abraham and Margaret. Eve's father, Daniel and the David we are talking about were brothers and sons of Joseph, making Eve Fetrow a cousin to Abraham. This is assuming that Eve was taken in by a close relative after the death of her parents in 1851.

When Abraham and Margaret died and where they are buried is unknown.

I. HARRY G. FETROW b. 7/3/1855 in Fairview township married Fannie Alice Berkheimer who was born 3/12/1859 in Cumberland County. Harry and his wife had five children, namely: Abraham L. Fetrow b. 1/22/1880 - d. 8/19/1906, (A) HARRY G. FETROW, JR., (B) GEORGE W. FETROW, Katherine S. Fetrow b. 12/14 1893 who never married and is buried at Oberlin, Pa. and (C) Pearl E. (Fetrow) Smith. Harry G. Fetrow preceded his wife in death at the age of 63 years on 5/26/1919. Fannie A. (Berkheimer) Fetrow died at the age of 90 years in January of 1950 and was interred at Oberlin.

A. HARRY G. FETROW, JR. b. 9/22/1884 married Esther Irwin. Harry and Esther had two sons, namely: (1) HARRY I. FETROW and (2) FRANK W. Fetrow. Harry G. Fetrow, Jr. succumbed 2/28/1944 and is buried at Shoop's Cemetery.

JOHN Y. FETROW

JOHN Y. FETROW was born ca. 1816. He married Nancy Ann "Annie" Hess who was born ca. 1820. John was probably born in Fairview township. The census of 1860 lists him as residing there, his occupation, a farmer.

Sometime after 1860, John moved to New Cumberland. There is no conclusive proof as to the ancestry of John Y. Fetrow, but by using dates I suspect he may be the same as listed in Chapter 3 as a son of David Fetrow. I believe the Y. in his name stands for Yinger, as David married Mary Yinger. This means that his marriage to Annie Hess listed here would have to be a second marriage as the John Fetrow who was a son of David is listed in "The Fishers of Fishing Creek Valley" as having married a Margaret Book. Again this information is not conclusive and is only a speculation.

Four children were known to be born to John and Annie, namely: Barbara Fetrow b. ca. 1848, (I) Kate (Fetrow) Greenfield, (II) DAVID MICHAEL FETROW and Sarah "Sadie" Fetrow b. 1859 in Fairview township who succumbed in January of 1880 at Lisburn to heart disease at the age of 20-years.

Annie (Hess) Fetrow died in February/1870 at the age of 49 years, preceding John who passed away in 1873 in Fairview township. Their burial place is unknown.

- I. CATHERINE A. "Kate" (Fetrow) GREENFIELD b. ca. 1852 was married on 3/7/1875 to Daniel Webster Greenfield. They had two children, namely: Anna May (Greenfield) Hoff b. 12/17/1875 in Fairview township who married Leroy Hoff and John Greenfield b. 6/23/1878.
- II. DAVID MICHAEL FETROW b. 10/3/1854 in Newberry township was married in January/1876 at Blaine, Pennsylvania - Perry County to Alice Kell. Alice was born 3/24/1857 in Cumberland County, the daughter of William & Susan (Schuart) Kell.
- David M. Fetrow was an undertaker by profession in Blaine. He and Alice had four children, namely: Harry Kell Fetrow b. 1/22/1876 who was unmarried and died 4/12/1903 at the age of 27 years, Ella Myrtle Fetrow b. 10/21/1877 who was unmarried and died 5/21/1903 at the age of 25 years.

Florence Olive (Fetrow) Kistler b. 8/23/1880 in Blaine who married a Dr. Kistler and died at the age of 48-years on 12/15/1928 and (A) Annie M. (Fetrow) Kessler. Alice (Kell) Fetrow passed away 3/15/1923 at the age of 65 years. David Michael Fetrow became a customer to his own profession on 12/12/1935 at the age of 81 years. They are buried at Blaine, Penna.

A. ANNIE MARIE (Fetrow) KESSLER b. 8/23/1893 in Blaine was married 12/23/1920 in New Germantown, Penna. to Clarence Nelson Kessler who was born 2/18/1896 in Blaine, the son of George & Mary (Hartman) Kessler. They had three children, namely: George Garlin Kessler b. 9/1/1921 at New Germantown who married Ruth Helen Sanderson, Florence Mae (Kessler) McCartin b. 11/17/1924 at Andersonburg, Pa., who married Charles McCartin and David Michael Kessler b. 9/16/1933 at New Germantown who married Marie Morrow. Clarence N. Kessler passed away 9/12/1945 at the age of 49-years.

JOSEPH FETROW was born September 22, 1825 in Fairview township, York County, the son of David & Mary (Yinger) Fetrow. In the Pennsylvania census of 1850, Joseph was residing in Lower Allen township, Cumberland County with his parents and some brothers and a sister who still remained at home.

He married in 1855 at Shiremanstown, Cumberland County to Mary Ann Stoner who was born in that town on September 12, 1835. Joseph and Mary Ann had one son in Fairview township, namely: Ira Fetrow b. 3/27/1855 - d. 2/5/1857 and was buried at Fairview Bethel Cemetery in York County.

Sometime in 1860, Joseph and Mary Ann left Pennsylvania and went west to Princeton, Illinois where Joseph's brothers, Jacob and Yinger were residing. It's possible to assume at this point that Joseph's father David went with them, as David died 10/5/1868 and is buried at Oakland Cemetery in Princeton. David was probably already a widower.

In Princeton, Joseph and Mary Ann resided on North Pleasant Street. He was employed by the Priestly and Carpenter Lumber Company. While residing in that town, Joseph and Mary Ann had five more children. Their second born of seven was (I) Aaron Fetrow, born prior to their removal from Pennsylvania. In Illinois were born (II) Emma C. (Fetrow) Mailloux, (III) Sarah (Fetrow) Schwartz, Maggie (Fetrow) Bushey b. 9/8/1865 - d. 1895 who married Harry Bushey, Charles H. Fetrow b. - I. AARON FETROW b. 1/18/1858 in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania married Mary Jury of Illinois. They had one daughter, namely: (A) Bessie (Fetrow) Mattson. Aaron Fetrow succumbed 1/4/1934 and was buried at Prairie Repose Cemetery in Dover, Illinois.
 - A. BESSIE (Fetrow) MATTSON b. 6/23/1884 in Princeton, Illinois married Earl Mattson who was born 5/17/1888 in Princeton. They had no children. Earl died 3/5/1967, preceding Bessie who succumbed on 7/9/1969 at the age of 85 years.
- II. EMMA CATHERINE (Fetrow) MAILLOUX b. 7/25/1861 in Princeton, was first married to Fink. Her second husband, Franklin Woth Casteel, father four children, namely: Charles, Roy, Ruth and Pearl Casteel. Emma remarried a second time to Thein. At the time of her death 2/15/1924, Emma Catherine was married a fourth time to a Mr. Mailloux. While married to Frank W. Casteel, Emma resided in Macon County, Missouri, moving later to Sturgis, South Dakota, the place of her death.
- III. SARAH (Fetrow) SCHWARTZ b. 1/16/1863, married George Schwartz. They resided in the state of Florida and had one daughter, namely: Mary S. (Schwartz) Gilmore who married Harry Gilmore (deceased). Mary resides at Daytona Beach, Florida.
- IV. ALBERT JAMES FETROW b. 1/8/1871 in Princeton was married 6/1/1899 to Abigail Orië Forristal who was born 2/22/1879. Abraham Fetrow

ABRAHAM FETROW was born "near Harrisburg" on May 27, 1827 (as recorded in his family Bible), the last-born of the five children of Abram Fetrow. Abram died when Abraham was 8 months old, after which Mary Fetrow was appointed guardian of the children of Abram by petition of the Courts as filed by John Fettrow, brother to Abram. John was the administrator of Abram's estate.

Some indications lean toward the possibility that Abraham was married when young in Pennsylvania and lost his wife in childbirth. This marriage would have occurred prior to his migration to Ohio around 1849 or 1850, but nothing has shown up to prove that such a marriage ever took place.

The migration to Ohio took Abraham to the area of Cadiz, southwest of Steubenville in Rumley township, Harrison County. It was in this township that he met and married Elizabeth Shambaugh. Elizabeth was born August 1, 1834 in Harrison County, the second oldest of the ten children of Michael and Hester Shambaugh of that county. Abraham and Elizabeth were married in Cadiz, Ohio on November 25, 1851.

Before her untimely death March 7, 1864 in Iowa, Elizabeth bore to Abraham, five children, namely: (I) GEORGE SHAMBAUGH FETROW, Mary Hetty Fetrow b. 5/6/1856 who died young, Catharine Fatima (Fetrow) Clarkson b. 10/23/1857 in Iowa who married Thomas Clarkson, resided in Blue Spring, Nebraska and died 3/7/1881 at the age of 23 years, Andrew Darius Fetrow b. 7/25/1859 in Iowa who never married and died 1/11/1925 in Haddam, Kansas - (C-05) and Janetta Erminia (Fetrow) Pease b. 2/25/1861 in Iowa who married James Pease and died around 1956 in Washburn, Missouri - Barry County.

Sometime after the death of Elizabeth, while residing in Iowa, Abraham met and married Mary Fettrow who was born in Iowa on August 1, 1848. The roots of this Mary Fettrow have not been established.

Abraham and Mary were married in 1866, sometime after which they migrated to Missouri, settling for a time in Macon County. It was here that their first son, (II) WILLIAM HENRY FETROW was born in 1867. In the following spring of '68, Abraham, his wife Mary and their children migrated farther west to Gage County, Nebraska where they established a homestead near Beatrice.

Abraham farmed his land and raised cattle to sell on the open market in Chicago, Illinois which he shipped to that location periodically by rail. Whenever in Chicago on his beef selling excursions, Abraham would visit with his brother Andrew who was a member of the stock-exchange in that city.

Three more children were born to Abraham and Mary, namely: (III) FRANKLIN EDWARD FETROW, John Charles "Johnny" Fetrow b. 10/6/1871 in Gage County, Nebraska who died of pneumonia 5/29/1889 at the age of 17-years (buried Cedar, Kansas), and Cora Belle (Fetrow) Rothenberger b. 4/17/1879 in Gage County who married Frank Rothenberger of Lebanon, Kansas, subsequently moving to California where they raised four children, namely: Ellis, Mildred, Neva and Eldon Rothenberger. Cora died in Pasadena, California - (date unknown).

After becoming financially well-to-do in the cattle business, Abraham Fetrow entered into the mercantile business, opening two large stores in Nebraska, one in Beatrice, the other in Holmesville. A further venture to increase his business interests did not work out as he had planned and he was forced to liquidate his assets. He salvaged enough money to purchase two farms, one south of the Solomon River, near Cedar, Kansas in Smith County, the other in western Kansas.

In March of 1886, the three boys, William age-18, Frank age-16 and John age-14, left Gage County, Nebraska in an open wagon drawn by two horses and loaded down with farm equipment. Their final destination, the new farm near Cedar, Kansas.

About thirty-miles from their destination, near Lebanon, Kansas the boys were caught in a blinding blizzard. The open wagon offered no shelter and left them exposed to the bitter wind and driving snow. As Divine Providence was apparently traveling with them, they spotted a faint light in the distance and made their way toward it. The flickering oil light beamed from the window of a small prairie house owned by a man and his sister who offered the boys shelter till the storm subsided, the duration of which lasted two-days. When the weather cleared, the boys thanked the man and his sister for their hospitality, hitched up their team and continued on toward their destination. Before traveling very far, the snow-covered ground ended and they were once again on the open prairie. The final twenty-five miles of the journey ended when they came over the hill north of Cedarville (as Cedar, Kansas was called in the 1800's).

The boys located their farm and started plowing the fields, awaiting the arrival of their parents and sister Cora.

Johnny Fetrow incurred a severe cold from being caught in the blizzard. The cold developed into pneumonia, combining with an advanced case of consumption, the effects weakening his system so that he never fully recovered. He died about two years later.

Abraham Fetrow departed this earth life in Cedar, Kansas on September 9, 1892 at the age of 65 years. On New Year's eve of 1928, at the age of 80-years, his widow, Mary joined him. They are buried in Cedar, Kansas.

Mary (Fettrow) Fetrow

- I. GEORGE SHAMBAUGH FETROW b. 12/2/1852 in Harrison County, Ohio, near Cadiz, the eldest son of Abraham & Elizabeth (Shambaugh) Fetrow settled in Kansas after leaving home. In the fall of 1874, George S. Fetrow built a sod shanty on the prairie of Osborne County, Kansas, planning a home for he and his wife to be.

Rachel Bertha Thornburg was born 7/18/1855 in Farmland, Indiana, the daughter of John Thornburg. Rachel and George were married 1/13/1875 at Rockford, Nebraska. The early years of their marriage were spent in their crude prairie house, where George made his existence and maintained a livelihood by farming the prairie land around it.

In the spring of 1884, George and Rachel moved to a 160 acre tract of land which he had purchased near Haddam, Kansas in Washington County on 11/15/1883.

Five children were born to the Fetrows on their Haddam, Kansas farm, namely: Alma Fetrow b. 4/10/1887 who died in 1901 of diptheria, (A) EDWARD A. FETROW, Nettie Elizabeth (Fetrow) Steinheimer b. 1/28/1891 who married Roy Lee Steinheimer in December of 1915, Catherine Fetrow b. 3/14/1892 who succumbed to diptheria in 1897 and (B) WARD W. FETROW, last born of George and Rachel in 1893.

George S. Fetrow preceded his wife in death at Haddam on 1/20/1940 at the age of 87 years, 1 month and 18 days. Rachel (Thornburg) Fetrow passed away 12/18/1942 at the age of 87 years, 5 months - (C-05).

Will was married 9/21/1892 in Bloomington, Nebraska at the age of 24 years to Martha Cordelia (Hobbs) Hobson who had previously been married to John Hobson. Martha was born 1/20/1870 in Knoxville, Tennessee, the daughter of Ezekial Preston & Ann Elizabeth Hobbs.

William Henry Fetrow purchased his own farm about two-miles west of Cedar, Kansas in 1894. He acquired 320 acres, some bottom land on the Solomon River and some on higher ground. Will was a diversified farmer, raising corn and cane on the bottom land and wheat and alfalfa on the higher ground. He also raised beef cattle, dairy cattle, hogs and chickens.

When the Solomon River flooded as it sometimes did and ruined the bottom land crops, he still had his pasture and wheat on the higher ground. When the drought and chinch bugs took the wheat, he usually had a fair corn and feed crop on the bottom land. Will chose to be a farmer because he wanted to be his own boss. He would not go along with the other farmers when they became involved in farm subsidies as he didn't like being told what to raise and how much.

Martha bore to Will, three children, namely: (A) Edna M. (Fetrow) Kelling, (B) LELAND C. FETROW and (C) Ferne (Fetrow) Myers.

Martha (Hobbs) Fetrow passed away August 5, 1949 at the age of 79 years.

In his waning years, William Henry Fetrow was always alert to what was going on around him, locally and in the world. He was almost blind for the last years of his life, depending much on a radio to keep him informed. Will departed this life on 6/21/1973 at Smith Center, Kansas at the age of 105-years, 10-months and 9-days. He and Martha are buried at Cedar, Kansas.

DANIEL FETTROW

DANIEL FETTROW was born July 24, 1830 in Conewago township, the first born of the seven children of Samuel & Mary (Bruaw) Fettrow. Daniel was married October 9, 1856 at the age of 26 years to Sarah Wilt who was born April 30, 1832. They were married in York at Christ Lutheran Church by the Reverend Augustus H. Lochman.

On November 17th of the following year, their first son, namely: (I) WILLIAM FETTROW was born. In 1859, on September 10th, a daughter, Anna Louisa Fettrow was born. She died at the age of 4-years on November 23, 1863.

In 1860, the census of York County shows Daniel Fettrow residing in Newberry township, his occupational listing being a farmer. On October 25th of that year, twin daughters were born to Daniel and Sarah one of which died November 6, of 1863. The surviving daughter was named (II) Mary Ann Fettrow and she later married George Andrew May.

A fourth daughter, namely Leah Frances Fettrow was born July 14, 1862. She died the following year on May 12th. Amanda Ellen Fettrow, their fifth daughter was born April 22, 1864 and died that same year on December 8th.

Toward the close of the Civil War in March of 1865, the 34-year old, 5'11", prematurely gray-haired Daniel Fettrow enlisted at Harrisburg with Company "D" 101st Regiment. Only the great war in which brother fought against brother was drawing to a close, finally ending on April 9th of that year with Confederate General Robert E. Lee's surrender at Appomatox Court House in Virginia. Daniel served with the 101st until June of 1865 when he was honorably discharged at New Berne, North Carolina. He returned home to his wife Sarah and his two children, William and Mary Ann.

Caroline Fettrow, the sixth daughter and seventh child of Daniel and Sarah was born on September 23, 1866.

In 1868, Daniel Fettrow was operating a blacksmith shop at Eberly Mills, Pennsylvania in Lower Allen township, Cumberland County. He and his family resided in a semi-detached house which adjoined the blacksmith shop. This house was purchased in March of 1868 by Daniel Drawbaugh and his wife Elcetta to whom Daniel Fettrow paid rent of $110. a year. The Fettrows and the Drawbaughs became the best of friends and lived as neighbors for eight years until Daniel Fettrow purchased the property, taking possession on April 1, 1876. The purchase price was $2,200.

Daniel Drawbaugh was an inventor, called by some "the wizard of Eberly Mills". Among his early patented inventions were those of a stave jointing machine in 1851, a stave machine in 1855 which came to be popular down south, a machine for leveling the faces of millstones in 1863, a nail plate feeder in 1865 and a measuring faucet in 1866.

The measuring faucet came into being during the bitter cold winter of 1865-66. It seems the local residents of Eberly Mills wanted molasses that winter and the local storekeeper, at his wit's end in trying to get the molasses to flow, summoned Daniel Drawbaugh to his store and presented him with the problem. Daniel pondered the situation and left the general store. He returned the following day with a crude wooden measuring faucet which was inserted into the bung of the molasses barrel. Lo and behold, the residents of Eberly Mills had molasses for their buckwheat cakes that day and the rest of the winter. The measuring faucet was patented and soon the whole country had "molasses in January."

Daniel Drawbaugh is probably best known for his court battle against American Bell Telephone Company in the 1880s for the patent rights to the telephone. Drawbaugh claimed he invented the communications device before Alexander Graham Bell received his patent on March 7, 1876.

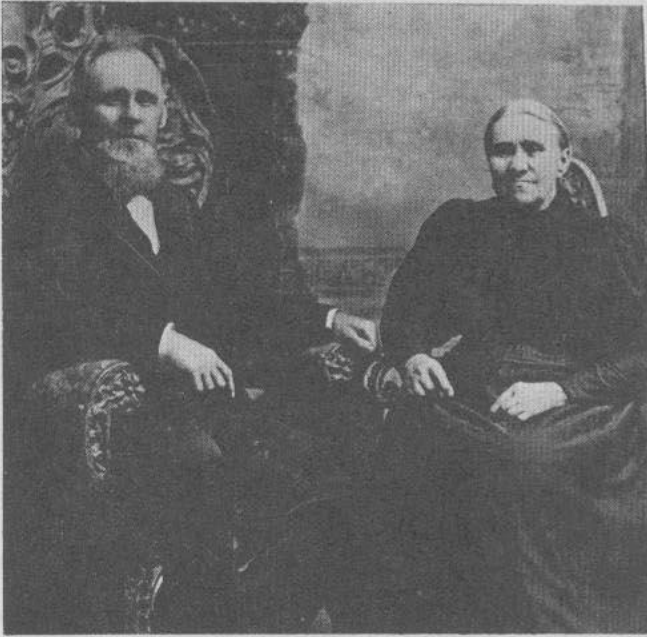

At these proceedings, Daniel Fettrow testified, as did his son-in-law, George Andrew May that they witnessed a demonstration of one of Drawbaugh's devices in May of 1875. Needless to say, the Supreme Court ruled against Drawbaugh, the case being lost by one vote.

Among Daniel Drawbaugh's other inventions - for which he received patents - were those of an earth battery for clocks in 1879, a water motor in 1880, another measuring faucet in 1880, a magnetic clock in 1887, a braiding machine in 1889, a grain weigher device in 1893, a collapsible box in 1899, an electric generator in 1900, a folding box in 1901, a magnet in 1903, a battery in 1903, a milk tester agitator in 1903, a window blind in 1908 and a coin sorter in 1911 just prior to his death.

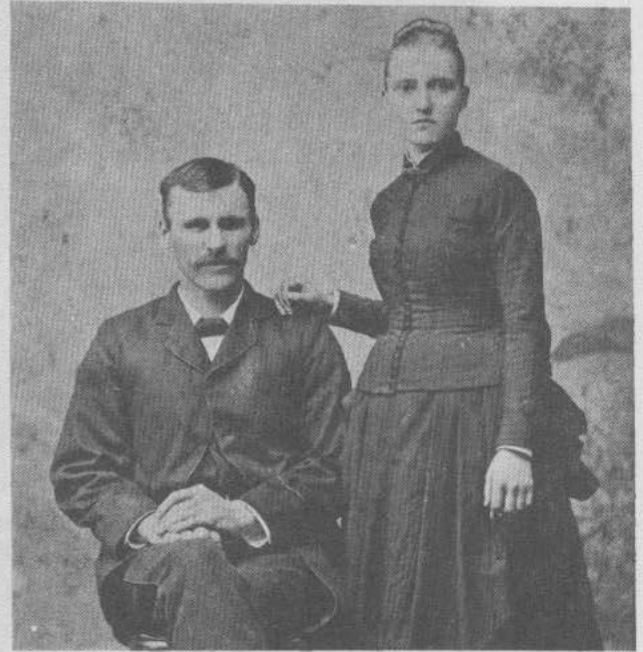

On September 22, 1871, a son was born to Daniel and Sarah (Wilt) Fettrow. He was named, Jacob Monroe Fettrow. Little Jacob's life was not to be long on this earth. He returned to his maker on November 18th of the year of his birth. On the following day, his 5-year old sister, Caroline joined him.

(III) CLARENCE W. FETTROW, third son of Daniel and Sarah and last born of the nine children of Daniel and Sarah, entered life at Eberly Mills on November 26, 1873.

Daniel Fettrow departed this life on August 19, 1902 at the age of 72 years at his residence in Eberly Mills. His widow, Sarah succumbed January 14, 1914. They are buried at Camp Hill, Penna.

William S. Fetrow

WILLIAM S. FETROW was born in Newberry township in the fall of 1832 on October 8th, the first born of the children of David P. & Barbara (Shetter) Fetrow. He was married October 13, 1857 to Sarah Zorger Gouth "Good". Sarah was born in York county on January 14, 1837.

The first of the children of William and Sarah was born in 1858 and he was named (I) ALBERT H. FETROW. Their second born, a daughter Emma Tressah Fetrow b. 9/29/1858 - d. 2/25/1861, followed by their third child, a daughter, namely: (II) Barbara Catherine (Fetrow) Fetrow. Their fourth born, a son was named (III) Martin M. Fetrow.

On July 1, 1863 after leaving his farm and family in York County, William S. Fetrow enlisted in Company "D" 47th Regiment of the P. V. I. at Harrisburg. Shortly after his enlistment, he became ill with chronic dysentery and was discharged on a medical certificate after only 44 days of service.

(IV) EDWARD L. FETROW, the fifth child of William and Sarah was born in June of 1864. The L. in Edward's name stood for Lincoln, it being a sign of respect for the current Republican president of the United States.

In February of 1865, William S. Fetrow felt well enough to make another go at the army and on the 27th of that month he re-enlisted at Harrisburg, this time in Company "K" 192nd Regiment - P. V. I. and served just 3 days short of six months, being discharged at Harper's Ferry, Virginia on August 24th. He returned to his York County farm.

In the fall of 1866, during harvest time, William had an accident with a straw cutter, in which his left index finger was so badly severed that it had to be broken off and removed completely.

Two more children were born to William and Sarah, namely: (V) David F. Fetrow in April of '67 and (VI) Mary Agnes in April of 1870.

It was around this time that William S. Fetrow was pondering moving his family out west. He had a grant of land coming to him for his Civil War service and the thought of tilling new ground appealed to him. He had heard of the rich prairie lands of the midwestern United States.

The eighth child of William and Sarah was born March 27, 1873. Her name was Sarah Matilda Fetrow and she died May 10, 1873 shortly before her parents left for the west.

William S. Fetrow was residing in the area of Newberrytown, York Co. when in the summer of 1873 he finally made the decision to move his family out west. He sold off his farm and the possessions that the family would not need, packed up their goods in two covered wagons they had purchased and left York County.

With William and Sarah went their children, Barbara age 12, Martin age 10, Edward age 9, David age 6 and little Mary Agnes who was then 3 years of age. Their oldest son, Albert H. Fetrow remained behind in York County with relatives. He was fourteen years old at the time of his parents departure from Pennsylvania.

Driving the second wagon were two of William's brothers, namely: 32 year old John R. and Miller age 30.

The final destination was Prospect township in Butler County, Kansas, located near the town of El Dorado which was located about twenty-five miles west of Wichata, Kansas. It was here that William S. Fetrow and his family established a homestead.

In Kansas, two more daughters were born to the Fetrows, namely: (VII) Allie May and (VIII) Dora Arabella.

Sarah Z. (Gouth) Fetrow died in Kansas on October 14, 1904 and is buried there. William S. Fetrow lived as an invalid in his later years until his death. He suffered from rheumatism of the legs and back, deafness in both ears and a variety of internal complications. He passed away on January 8, 1910 at the age of 77 years and is buried in Kansas.

JOHN B. FETTROW

MARGARET JANE FETTROW

JOHN B. FETTROW was born January 21, 1835 in Newberry township, the third born son of Samuel & Mary (Bruaw) Fettrow. While still in his youth, John was boarded out by his father. He worked as a carpenter's apprentice, learning the trade, prior to his entering the army on August 24, 1864. On that date, 29 year old John and his younger brother, Rudy, age 24, enlisted in Company "B" - 200th Regiment of the P. V. I. as privates at Harrisburg, Penna.

In 1864, Company "B" was part of the front which surrounded Petersburg, Virginia. On December 11th of that year, the company was forced to march to the Nottoway River through a driving torrential rainstorm. The rainstorm caused the local streams to swell and overflow their banks. During the march back to Petersburg, the temperature dropped rapidly, creating almost unbearable conditions for the already drenched soldiers of Company "B", many of which became ill with colds and pneumonia. John B. Fettrow suffered from permanent rheumatism for the rest of his life as a result of the company's march through the inclement winter weather.

On April 2, 1865, Company "B" of the 200th was participating in the assault on Petersburg. During the assault, John loaded his rifle to fire, but as he pulled the trigger, the powder charge exploded in his face, the flash of which imbedded particles in his left eye. During the next couple of days, the eye became sore and inflamed, impairing his vision considerably. In 1889 he lost use of the eye completely.

John and Rudy were discharged from service on May 30, 1865 at Alexandria, Virginia after which they returned home to York County. The Civil War had ended fifty-one days prior to their discharge.

On June 25, 1865, the 5' 8" John B. Fettrow was married to the woman who awaited his return from the War.

Margaret Jane Yencel was born April 24, 1840, one of twin daughters born to Michael Yencel (b. 4/3/1803 - d. 2/22/1879) and his wife Anna Mary (b. 11/25/1803 - d. 1/30/1879) - (C-21). Michael Yencel was the son of Frederick Yencel (b. 7/15/1760 - d. 4/20/1841) and his wife Elizabeth Hart (b. 2/2/1760 - d. 4/26/1834) - (C-21) who migrated to York County from Dauphin County around the area of Lebanon. Jane's twin sister Anna Mary died at the age of five years.

Later in that year of 1865, John and Jane's first child was born, but it was premature and died. Their married life together brought five more children into the world, namely: (I) ANNA MARY FETROW, (II) Elmer Fetrow, (III) Reuben Fetrow, EDWARD FETROW b. 5/6/1873 who married Lizzie Hughes (see Chapter 26), and (IV) SAMUEL FETROW.

After the birth of Samuel, Jane sickened with the consumption which had plagued her for years. She died March 11, 1877 at the age of 36 years - (C-21).

Following the death of his wife, John B. Fettrow found it difficult to carry on his farming and raise five young children, so he hired a housekeeper to tend to the domestic chores.

Sevilla Wire was born February 8, 1853. She moved into the household of John B. Fettrow in September of 1877. With her when she moved in was her nine months old son, Allen Wilt, born illegitimately to Sevilla by her brother-in-law, Daniel Wilt. Daniel was the husband of Sevilla's sister, Elizabeth.

Sevilla kept house for four-years at the Fettrow farm, tending to the children and the domestic chores. In 1881, Sevilla found herself "in a family way" to her employer. They were married that year on October 20th by the Reverend C. J. Deiningner. John was then 46-years of age.

Between the years of 1882 and 1896, John and Sevilla had seven children, namely: Sarah Jane (Fettrow) Hake b. 2/22/1882 who was married 2/2/1915 to George Hake, Jr. b. ca. 1872, a farmer. Sarah Jane died without issue on 12/11/1957. The six other children of John and Sevilla were (V) Ella (Fettrow) Linebaugh, (VI) Leah (Fettrow) Weigel, (VII) Taisy (Fettrow) Hartman, (VIII) Charles G. Fetrow, (IX) Frank B. Fetrow. On April 3, 1896, Sevilla gave birth to another son, namely: John Fettrow who died shortly after birth. The infant was buried at Parkville Cemetery at Bald Hill.

He was assigned to Company "K" - 126th Regiment, 32nd Division. He underwent basics at Battle Creek, Michigan and was later stationed at Waco, Texas. From there he was sent to Camp Merritt, New Jersey from where he sailed in February of 1918 for France.

While on active duty in the front line trenches, Charles was gassed and conveyed to a hospital for recovery. After his stay in the hospital, he was again sent to the front lines in the Argonne Forest where he was killed by shrapnel on November 5, 1918, six days before the armistice was signed at Compiegne, ending the great war. His remains were interred in France.

A number of years after the war had ended, members of Charles' immediate family arranged with the U. S. Army to have his remains removed from it's burial sight in France and returned to Newberry township for burial in the family plot.

While the body was lying in state at the little church at Bald Hill, adjoining Parkville Cemetery, members of the family went to the church the night before the funeral. With a flashlight, they entered the church, opened the coffin and removed the cover from the body. The purpose of this was to prove that it was Charles's remains that they were burying. His sister, Leah Weigel identified the body as that of Charles without a doubt. It seems that prior to his moving to Detroit, he resided with his sister Leah, and while residing there he had been kicked in the face by a horse, subsequently cracking one of his teeth. It was this cracked tooth that identified his remains - (C-13).

MICHAEL M. FETTROW1837*19*MICHAEL M. FETTROW*ELIZABETH FETTROW

MICHAEL M. FETTROW was born August 22, 1837 in Conewago township, the son of Henry & Catharine (Mayer) Fetrow and a twin brother to Henry M. Fetrow, Jr. After leaving home, Michael resided with his great-uncle, Joshua Fetrow at the house next to Fetrow's Tavern. in York Borough where he helped out.

Joshua Fetrow (see Chapter 1 - Part VIII) looked upon Michael as his own son which he never had and in many ways was Michael's benefactor. He also paid Michael's way out of the U. S. Army when the Civil War broke out.

Joshua wanted Michael to marry Lucina Dietz, widow of Daniel Dietz who some referred to as "Cinderella" due to her extraordinary beauty. Although in these matters, Michael had his own mind. He was married May 10, 1864, fifteen days before the death of Joshua to Elizabeth James.

Elizabeth James was born March 10, 1838 in Cumberland County, the daughter of Isaac & Lenah (Knaub) James, who later moved from Cumberland County to Newberry township, York County where they later resided. Elizabeth's sister, Lydiann, married Michael's brother, Leander. Prior to her marriage to Michael, Elizabeth bore a son on August 10, 1862. Whether Michael was the father or not is unknown, but he accepted him as one of his own.

Michael and Elizabeth resided on a farm in Windsor Park, outside of York City which Michael acquired from Joshua. Michael farmed his land in Windsor Park and also operated a brickyard on Laucks Mill Road (formerly known as Plank Road). It was on this farm in Windsor Park, the house of which is now known as "The Old Wheel Inn" that Michael and Elizabeth raised their family of eight children, namely: (I) Eli Fettrow, (II) William H. Fettrow, (III) Amanda (Fettrow) Almonee, (IV) Ellen (Fettrow) Stevenson, (V) Annie (Fettrow) Eline, (listed in the family Bible of Michael & Elizabeth as Annie Eva), (VI) Ida (Fettrow) Bufflap, (VII) JOSHUA FETTROW and Magdelene Fettrow b. 9/30/1876 - d. 10/30/1876.

Michael M. Fettrow departed this life on June 25, 1915, making it possible to unravel the mysterious will left by Joshua Fettrow, upon his death over fifty-one years before. Michael was the last surviving heir named in the will.

Elizabeth (James) Fettrow lived on at the old homestead until her death February 23, 1933 at the age of 94-years, 11 months and 13 days - (C-14).

Emanuel Fetrow

EMANUEL FETROW was born in Conewago township on January 20, 1841, the second born of the children of Abraham & Susanna (Billet) Fetrow of Dover, Penna.

According to a form filled out by the Adjutant General's Office, Emanuel was drafted and enrolled August 12, 1863 in Company "H" - 149th Regiment, P. V. I. at Carlisle, Pennsylvania. At that time he was a laborer and resident of Dover township. His personal description at this time lists him as 5'6" tall with a fair complexion, hazel eyes and brown hair.

Company "H" was in Spotsylvania County in northeast Virginia as part of the Union forces under General Grant during the Wilderness Campaign of May-June 1864. At this time Company "H" became involved in a skirmish with the confederate forces and on May 10, 1864, Emanuel Fetrow was wounded in the neck and captured by the enemy. He escaped from his captors, filing a registered return in July/1864. On July 24th of that same year, Emanuel was once again reported missing and presumed captured at Tennallytown. He was missing from the rolls of his company until October/1864. His service records do not account for what happened at this time but apparently from November up until June 3, 1865 he was again present on the rolls. No record of personal desertion exists.

Emanuel was mustered out with his company and discharged honorably at Halls Hill, Virginia on July 15, 1865.

In March/1866, Emanuel Fetrow was married at Lewisberry to Catharine Stouch. Catharine was born May 1, 1839 and she bore to Emanuel, three children, namely: (I) HENRY FETROW, Rebecca Fetrow b. 8/12/1868 who never married and died 11/8/1925 - (C-18) and (II) Susan (Fetrow) Wilt.

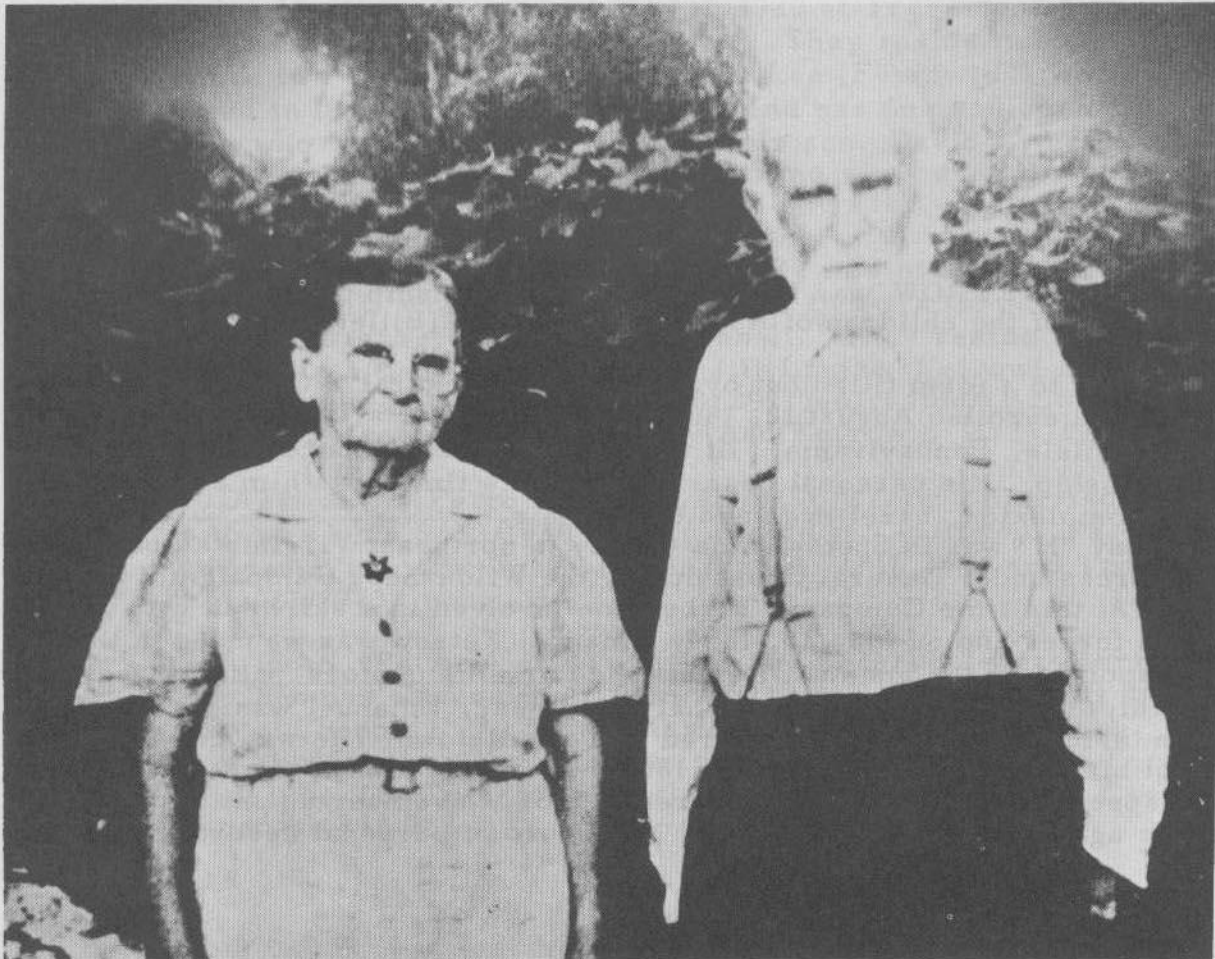

Catharine (Stouch) Fetrow passed away on September 18, 1883 at the age of 44 years, 4 months and 17 days - (C-18).

In 1915 when Emanuel Fetrow was filling out a form to collect pension from the government for his Civil War service, he was asked to produce a marriage certificate, proving that he had been married. He was unable to do this, stating in the form "it was destroyed, the mice ate it."

Emanuel Fetrow passed from this earth life on the Fourth of July in 1917 at the age of 76 years, 5 months and 14 days - (C-17).

I. HENRY FETROW b. 12/28/1866 was married 4/6/1890 to Lillian Elizabeth Roller who was born 3/10/1873, the daughter of Henry & Susan Roller of Dover. ELI FETTRO

ELI FETTRO was born October 13, 1850, third-born of the children of Abraham & Margaret (Stoner-?) Fetrow of Fairview township. Eli was first married to Agnes Kauffman. He subsequently remarried to Fannie Reynolds, who bore him two sons, namely: (I) LaRUE PRESTON FETTRO and Wilson Eli Fetto b. 7/3/1912 in Fairview township who married Helen Stevens and currently resides in Miramar, Florida.

Eli Fetto, who resided at New Market, Penna. passed away on September 27, 1922 at Oberlin, Penna. after which his widow remarried to one Jacob Rudy. She succumbed on November 8, 1948.

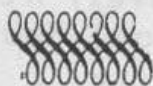

The reason for the different spelling of the family name, here, can only be speculated on. It is a possibility that Eli's father, Abraham also spelled his name FETTRO, as the only spellings we have (as seen from Chapter 10) are from the York County Census.

- I. LaRUE PRESTON FETTRO b. 12/31/1905 in Fairview township was married 3/30/1926 in Hagerstown, Md. to Margarete Martin who was born 11/13/1907 in Page County, Virginia, the daughter of Frank & Florence (Painter) Martin. LaRue and Margarete had five children, namely: (A) LAWRENCE LaRUE FET-

Part IV C - ? -)

John W. Fetrow

1850

24

JOHN W. FETROW was born in March/1850 as given on the 1900 census of York County. The year of birth on his tombstone is 1851.

There is no conclusive proof as to the parents of John W. Fetrow but I believe him to be the John Fetrow listed in Chapter 1 who was the youngest son of Philip & Rebecca (?) Fetrow (see Chapter 1 Part IV C). I believe this the proper connection as John Fetrow, son of Philip was listed as residing in Conewago township in 1864 in need of a guardian, indicating that he was fourteen years of age or younger.

John W.'s earliest records place him in Conewago township as he also resided there in later years, as a farmer in the area of Strinestown. At Parkville Cemetery it will be seen that the name of Rebecca Fetrow appears on the tombstone of Elizabeth Witmer, next to that of John W. Fetrow's tombstone. No dates appear for Rebecca Fetrow but a checking of the county court house records revealed that she was born in 1830 and died 1/3/1894 and subsequently buried at Parkville. Elizabeth Witmer was an aunt to John W. Fetrow who was residing with him and his family in the census of 1900. I presume that Elizabeth and Rebecca were sisters.

John married Mary Amanda Witmer who was born February 24, 1848 according to the age on her tombstone. The census of 1900 indicates she was born in February/ 1851. John and Mary had four children, namely: (I) Amanda (Fetrow) Hoover, (II) Minnie (Fetrow) Beck, (III) CALEB FETROW and (IV) CURVIN FETROW.

At her death on September 20, 1904, Mary listed her name as Mary Ann Fetrow in her last will and testament. She succumbed to dropsy. John W. Fetrow passed away in 1928 - (C-13).

I. AMANDA (Fetrow) HOOVER b. July/1875 married George Washington Hoover. They had four children, namely: Anna Mary (Hoover) Zink who married John Zink, Ellen (Hoover) Zink who married Paul Zink, John W. APPENDIX

The following bits of information have been recorded from the remaining records. I have not been able to place them in the main body of the family tree from the preceding chapters. It will be noted that all of the following pieces of information are from the 19th Century, ca. 1800 to 1899.

1. ABRAHAM FETROW according to the census of 1850 was born ca. 1813. He was married 8/29/1844 to Anna Maria Parthemore b. ca/1823. The census of that year (1850) shows Abraham as a farmer in Newberry township with the following children: CORDELIA b. ca. 1845, LAGAETT - ? b. ca.1846, MARGARET E. b. ca. 1848 and JAMES FETROW b. ca.1850.
2. ALBERT G. FETROW b. Jan/1888 was residing with his grandparents, Daniel & Elizabeth Fink in the Conewago township census of 1900.
3. ANDREW FETROW b. ca. 1827 resided in Conewago township where he died in June/1860 at the age of 33 years of a lingering illness of 120 days.
4. ANNIE FETROW was born 6/6/1899, the daughter of WILLIAM & IDA FETROW of Spring Garden township.
5. ARTHUR H. FETROW b. 1882 - d. 1940 who was a barber by occupation resided in York City after the turn of the last century. He married Amanda Thomas b. 1874 - d. 1961-?. They apparently moved from York as they later resided in Gettysburg, Pa. They had one daughter, namely: JULIA FETROW who was born in 1910. Arthur is buried at Citizen's Cemetery in Gettysburg.
6. BERTHA A. FETROW b. 1884 became the wife of Erwin W. Fickle on 11/19/1905 at Lewisberry. Bertha (Fetrow) Fickle died in 1906 and is buried at Fetrow's Cemetery. (Possibly a daughter of Henry C. & Sarah (Prowell) Fetrow - (see Chapter 6).
7. CATHARINE FETROW (birth unknown) daughter of David Fetrow of Fairview township was married at New Market, Pa. on 12/19/1833 to George Ashenfelter.
8. CLOYD M. FETROW (birth unknown) was a paperhanger by occupation and resided in York City at the turn of the last century. Cloyd was married 4/26/1894 to Ellen Ilgenfritz in York.
9. DANIEL FETROW b. ca. 1800 is listed in the 1850 census of the state of Ohio (County unknown) with his wife Ruth b. ca. 1806, of which both were born in Pennsylvania. Also listed in the census are their nine children, of which all were apparently born in Ohio. The children of Daniel and Ruth: JENNY b. ca. 1830, WILLIAM b. ca.1833, MARY b. ca. 1834, DAVID b. ca. 1835, DANIEL b. ca. 1840, JOHN b. ca. 1841, SARAH b. ca-1844, MARGARET b. ca. 1845 and GEORGE FETROW b. ca. 1847.
10. DANIEL FETROW of York was married 1/16/1862 to MRS. SARAH ANN FETROW.
11. DANIEL J. FETROW b. 1847 was residing at the age of 3-years in the census of 1850 with Fairview township farmer, John Bell and his wife Mary (who may have been a Fetrow). It would seem that Daniel was orphaned at an early age.

By 1870, Daniel had married Katherine Elizabeth Warner b. ca. 1841. He was residing in Fairview township and was a carpenter by trade.

By 1880, Daniel was residing in Warrington township. He and Katherine had six children, namely: ANNIE b. 1870 who is not listed on the census of 1880, ELMIRA b. 1871, SARAH A. b. 1876, HATTIE (FETROW) Boring b. 1878 who was married 11/5/1893 at Lewisberry to Jacob W. Boring of Warrington township, SUSAN who died in Feb/1880 at the age of 1 year of catarrh fever and WILLIAM H. FETROW who was born 5/19/1885 in Monoghan township. Note: John and Mary Bell are buried at Fairview Bethel Cemetery.

12. EDWIN FETROW b. 7/11/1869 (son of Henry-?).
13. ELIZABETH FETROW age 88 years is listed as residing in Fairview township in the census of 1860. This should be the same Elizabeth Fetrow who was born 2/25/1772 - d. 8/21/1866 and buried at Salem Lutheran Cemetery in Fairview township. (This possibly is the Widow Stickel who married Philip Jacob Fetrow after the death of Catharine Hummel - (see Chapter 1).
14. EMMA FETROW died at the age of 1 month in Jan/1860 of whooping cough.
15. GEORGE FETROW b. ca. 1830 was residing in Manchester with Samuel Gross in the census of 1850.
16. JACOB FETROW of Monoghan township, died in December/1863 naming his widow, Susanna as administrator of his estate. (This may be the same Jacob Fetrow who was born 7/25/1793, the son of Johannes & Elizabeth (Coble) Fetrow - (see Chapter 4).
17. JOHN FETROW b. ca. 1831 was residing in Manchester with Adam Cross in the census of 1850.
18. JOHN FETROW b. March/1850 who was unmarried was residing in Fairview township in the census of 1900. Residing with him was JANE FETROW b. Sept/1850 who listed herself as a divorcee with 2 children. Jane was a house-keeper for John. Her children were not residing with her.
19. JOHN ANDREW FETROW - In May/1863, a petition was filed in Orphan's Court of York County to appoint a guardian for John Andrew, a minor son and only child of JOHN FETROW (both parents deceased). The petition was filed by his uncle, John Fink and one Henry Irwin, It also states that both the paternal grandparents were also deceased.
20. LEAH FETROW was married at Columbia, Penna. on 11/23/1845 to Jeremiah Kerr, of the Wrightsville, Kerrs.
21. MAGGIE FETROW b. 1854 was unmarried and residing in Newberry township in the census of 1880 with Eli & Catharine Free.
22. MARY FETROW was married 1/20/1859 to George K. Kauffman of North Codorus township.
23. MARY ANN FETTROW of Cumberland County was married 12/14/1845 (in York-?) to John Bean, also of Cumberland County.

24. PHILIP FETROW b. ca. 1809 is listed as a laborer residing in Newberry township in the census of 1850. He was residing with Ezekial Baptist, a farmer b. ca. 1815 and his wife Eliza b. ca. 1815 and their three children. This is probably the same Philip, widower of SUSANNA FETROW. Susan is buried at Parkville Cemetery b. 11/14/1819 - d. 3/1/1846. Also buried with her is ANDREW FETROW b. 9/15/1844 - d. 3/8/1846, listed as son of Philip.
25. REBECCA FETROW (infant) died in October/1870 in Newberry township of cholera.
26. REBECCA FETROW was married on 10/10/1861 to Levi N. Achenbach.
27. REBECCA L. FETTROW b. ca-1845 was residing in Conewago township with Barbara Fettrow, widow of Michael (see Chapter 2) and her step-daughter, Elizabeth (Fetrow) Meyer, widow of George Meyer. From the census of 1850.
28. SARAH J. FETROW b. ca. 1857 was married 4/2/1899 to Harry H. Nagle. They were subsequently divorced on 11/9/1903, both claiming desertion. On 6/2/1908 at York, Sarah J. and Harry Nagle who was born ca. 1865 were remarried. - to each other.
29. ROSANAH I. FETROW b. ca. 1855 at the age of 15 years was residing in Conewago township - Strinestown with William S. Bear.
30. RUTH ANN FETROW - A petition was filed in 1863 to appoint David Boyer as guardian to Ruth Ann, a minor under the age of 14 years. She is listed as a daughter of Sarah and minor grandchild of Margaret (deceased). Note: Ruth Ann is probably one of the two unknown children of John & Sarah (Wyer) Fetrow - (see Chapter 2).
31. SALLY FETROW was married 8/23/1835 to Henry Flint.
32. SARAH FETROW of Newberry township was married December/1835 to Christian G. Kister. Christian was born 9/28/1811 - d. 11/3/1856, the son of George & Hannah Kister.
33. SARAH FETROW b. ca. 1839 (Fetrow is her legal name) died in March/1860 at the age of 21 years after a 360-day bout with consumption.
34. WILLIAM FETTROW b. ca. 1838 resided in Conewago township where he died by drowning in June of 1850 at the age of 12 years.

Index

The following index has been condensed from its original form which listed every person named in the book. Now descendants with names other than FETROW, FETTROW or FETTRO will be listed under the name of their earliest ancestor. (D) - following a name indicates the book lists more than one generation of descendants of that person. (C) - following a name means that only the children of that person are listed. If only one child, the name of the father and child are both listed. (I) - following a name indicates that person never lived beyond infancy, dying before the age of 2 years. (Ch) - following a name indicates a child who died between the ages of 2 and 10 years. All persons are listed by their given name at birth, unless the given name is not known.
